Hi s 47 E(c)

Apologies for the delay. Please see our proposed response.

Attributable to City of Melbourne CEO Justin Hanney

During the recent hard lockdown, the Victorian Government delegated City of Melbourne with responsibility for overseeing the receipt and distribution of essential supplies to residents in the North Melbourne public housing estate.

A number of identical packages from the One Nation Senator were delivered to 125/76 Canning Street North Melbourne addressed "to the householder."

The City of Melbourne sought advice from Australia Post and the Federal Police to investigate whether the delivery breached the Commonwealth Criminal Code.

The City of Melbourne ceased its responsibility for overseeing delivery at the estate and so we requested that Australia Post collect the parcels.

Look forward to seeing your proposed response.
