PART A – GENERAL POSTAL SERVICES

PRELIMINARY

1 Introduction

- 1.1 Unless Australia Post and a customer have a separate written agreement on terms and conditions for any service, these Australia Post Terms and Conditions exclusively set out the rights and obligations between Australia Post and the customer.
- 1.2 In consideration of Australia Post agreeing to provide postal and/or related services to the customer, the customer agrees to comply with these Australia Post Terms and Conditions.
- 1.3 Where Australia Post and a customer reach any separate Agreement concerning the terms and conditions upon which any service will be supplied to a customer, and where the separate agreement states that these terms and conditions will be incorporated into that Agreement, these terms and conditions apply to the extent that they are not inconsistent with any provisions of the Agreement.
- 1.4 Australia Post provides special services supplementary to the standard postal services contained in the body of these Australia Post Terms and Conditions, the terms and conditions of which are set out in the schedules hereto, and where the customer applies for a special service without written agreement, then the terms and conditions contained in the schedule shall apply to the provision of that special service to the customer as if a written agreement had been entered into.

2 Interpretation

- 2.1 In these Terms and Conditions, unless the contrary intention appears herein or in the Dictionary of these terms and conditions:
 - 2.1.1 words used shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in the Act;
 - 2.1.2 where a word or phrase is given a particular meaning, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of that word or phrase have corresponding meanings;
 - 2.1.3 words importing a gender include any other gender; and
 - 2.1.4 words in the singular number include the plural and words in the plural number include the singular.

3 Variation

These terms and conditions may be varied or added to from time to time by Australia Post and the current version will be available at auspost.com.au.

4 Carriage of mail and subcontracting

- 4.1 Australia Post may at its absolute discretion and subject to any other provision contained herein, carry postal articles by the most convenient method subject to the operational requirements of Australia Post and may subcontract such carriage at its absolute discretion.

5 Right of refusal

- 5.1 To the extent permitted by the Act, Australia Post is not a common carrier and reserves the right to refuse to provide postal and related services to any customer or to accept articles of any particular class, character or nature whatsoever at its sole discretion.

6 Governing law

- 6.1 These Terms and Conditions are governed by the laws of Victoria.

7 Customer obligations

- 7.1 The customer must pay postage and all other fees related to the postal and related services calculated in accordance with the rates and charges published by Australia Post from time to time, for the supply by Australia Post of postal and related services to, or at the direction of, the customer, and the customer warrants that if the customer acts, or purports to act, as agent for another person that the customer has the authority of that other person to so act.
- 7.2 The customer must comply with the correct addressing standards specified in Appendix 1.
- 7.3 The customer who is the addressee of an article addressed to a residential premises, must provide a receptacle which in the reasonable opinion of Australia Post, is easily accessible and of sufficient size for the purpose of receipt of the anticipated volume of standard letters which pursuant to these terms and conditions may be delivered at that residential premises.
- 7.4 Where a customer fails to comply with his obligations under this clause Australia Post may in its absolute discretion refuse to provide the service.

PAYMENT OF POSTAGE

8 Postage payable by postage stamps

- 8.1 Unless otherwise provided in the Act or these terms and conditions or any other agreement entered into between Australia Post and the customer, the postage payable on the carriage of an article shall be payable by:
- 8.1.1 for articles lodged for domestic carriage, affixing uncancelled postage stamps to the article: or
- 8.1.2 for articles lodged in Australia for international carriage, affixing uncancelled postage stamps, other than concession postage stamps, bearing the words "International Post" to the article or alternatively where the words "International Post" do not appear by affixing uncancelled postage stamps equivalent to 110% of the postage payable on the article.
- 8.2 A postage stamp affixed to an article in accordance with clause 8.1 must be capable of being cancelled and if any such postage stamp is not capable of being cancelled the article shall be deemed to be an "underpaid article".
- 8.3 For the purposes of clause 8.1 a postage stamp shall be deemed to have been affixed to an article when a postage meter impression is impressed on or affixed to the article.

9 Postage payable by prepaid imprint

- 9.1 A person lodging an article for carriage by post shall not use a postage paid imprint unless the imprint complies with the terms and conditions of the Australia Post Postage Paid Imprint Service.
- 9.2 Postage indicated by a postage prepaid imprint, mark, label or design authorised by Australia Post for the purpose of prepaying postage, printed or impressed on a product sold by Australia Post shall be valid only for payment of postage on the product on which it was originally printed or impressed.
- 9.3 Postage indicated by a postage prepaid imprint, mark, label or design authorised by Australia Post for the purpose of prepaying postage shall be valid only for payment of postage for the service indicated on the article upon which it appears.

10 Postage payable in money

- 10.1 Except where a person has a charge account postage on an article that is lodged for carriage by post by the PreSort Letter service or the print post service shall be paid in money and the article shall be affixed with a postage paid imprint or a postage meter impression.
- 10.2 Where there is a single lodgment of articles for carriage by post, otherwise than under clause 10.1, and the office of lodgment issues an adhesive "Postage Paid Australia" label for affixing to each article in the lodgment, postage shall be paid in money only.
- 10.3 Postage on an express post envelope or container lodged for carriage by the express post service shall be indicated by means of an individually numbered and intact barcode label affixed to the article, and shall be paid in money.
- 10.4 Where there is a single lodgment of articles for carriage by post, otherwise than:
- 10.4.1 under clause 10.1; and
 - 10.4.2 for carriage by the electronic mail services,
- and the office of lodgment does not issue an adhesive "Postage Paid Australia" label for affixing to each article in the lodgment and, further, the articles are arranged in a manner approved by the office of lodgment, postage may be paid in money or by postage stamps.
- 10.5 Postage payable by the addressee of an article that is carried by
- 10.5.1 the reply paid service;
 - 10.5.2 the international reply paid service;
 - 10.5.3 the key return service; or
 - 10.5.4 in pursuance of any other authorised arrangement,
- may be paid in money or by postage stamps.
- 10.6 Where a person is permitted or required by this clause to pay postage in money, the person may apply to Australia Post for approval to charge postage to a charge account.
- 10.7 Except where postage is provided to an authorised onseller, where a person charges postage to a charge account and:
- 10.7.1 Australia Post has issued a statement of the charge account;

10.7.2 a person pays the amount stated in the statement within five days after the date of issue of the statement; and

10.7.3 no payment or other postage charged to that account was overdue when the payment referred to in clause 10.7.2 was made, that person shall be entitled to a rebate in respect of the amount stated on the statement at a rate determined by Australia Post for that purpose to be credited to the account of that person at the end of the next succeeding month.

10.8 Notwithstanding any other provision in this clause, payment may be made only in money at an office approved by Australia Post for that purpose provided, however, that an Australia Post employee may refuse to accept payment of postage by means other than bank notes and coins in his absolute discretion and without giving any reason for such refusal, and no liability will accrue to Australia Post for any loss or damage arising as a result of the refusal of the employee.

11 Postage payable on return of opened articles

11.1 Unless the original sender of an article has entered into an agreement with Australia Post guaranteeing payment of postage for return of opened articles the postage in respect of such return shall be payable by the person who lodged it for return to the original sender.

12 Postage payable on alternatively delivered articles

12.1 An alternatively delivered article shall not be lodged for carriage by Australia Post unless it has the postage payable under clause 7, affixed.

12.2 An alternatively delivered article lodged with Australia Post in contravention of clause 12.1 shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as Australia Post sees fit.

13 Postage prepaid articles

13.1 Australia Post may provide postage prepaid articles which have a postage prepaid imprint or a representation of a postage stamp printed or impressed on them.

13.2 The price of postage prepaid articles shall be as determined by Australia Post.

13.3 Postage prepaid articles shall comply with the conditions for carriage of such articles as determined by Australia Post.

13.4 For the purpose of these Terms and Conditions, the amount paid as postage on an Australia Post prepaid product shall be deemed to be the amount that would have been payable on the article if it had not been impressed with a postage prepaid imprint. For the purposes of this clause, "Australia Post prepaid product" shall mean those products which are printed or impressed with an imprint to the effect "Postage Prepaid".

13.5 Postage prepaid articles which do not comply with the conditions for carriage shall be carried at a rate of postage applicable to the article at the time of lodgment. In assessing the applicable rate of postage, a credit shall be given for postage prepaid on the article which shall be an amount equivalent to the purchase price of a single like article at the time of lodgment. Where the amount credited is less than the applicable rate of postage the difference shall be affixed to the article by postage stamps.

13.6 A postage prepaid envelope may be carried by the registered post service subject to compliance with the terms and conditions applicable to the provision of that service.

14 Person responsible for payment of postage

14.1 Unless otherwise provided in these terms and conditions the postage payable on the carriage of an article by post shall be paid by the person lodging the article.

14.2 The postage payable on an article carried by post under the reply paid, international reply paid or key return services shall be paid by the addressee.

14.3 Where an article is returned to its sender pursuant to clause 26 any postage payable on its return shall be paid by that sender.

14.4 Where an article is lodged for further carriage pursuant to clause 21 any postage payable on its further carriage under that clause may be paid by the person lodging it for that carriage and shall, where it has not been paid by that person at the time of lodgment, be paid by the addressee of the article.

14.5 Where an article has been redirected before delivery pursuant to clause 20 any postage payable on its redirection under that clause shall be paid by its addressee.

14.6 Where an article, other than a postage prepaid envelope, is lodged for carriage by the cash-on-delivery service and the sender requests at the time of lodgment of the article that the postage payable on it shall be paid by the addressee, the postage is payable by the addressee, but if the article is unclaimed or refused by or undeliverable to the addressee, the postage shall be payable by the sender.

14.7 Where postage that is required to be paid by a person under this clause has not been paid in accordance with clause 15 it shall be paid by the person, and at the time, prescribed by clause 28.

15 The time at which postage is to be paid

15.1 Unless otherwise provided in these terms and conditions the postage payable on the carriage by post of an article shall be paid at or before the time the article is lodged.

15.2 Subject to clause 28, where postage is payable by:

15.2.1 the addressee of an article;

15.2.2 the sender of an article in respect of its return to the sender;

15.2.3 any other person with whom Australia Post has entered into an arrangement, the postage shall be paid at or before the time the article is delivered.

15.3 Postage shall be deemed to have been paid when it is debited to a charge account.

15.4 For the purposes of this clause, where an article is delivered to an addressee accompanied by a requirement that the addressee pay postage on the article by affixing postage stamps or a postage meter impression to a card and returning the card to Australia Post, the postage shall, if the requirement is duly complied with, be deemed to have been paid at the time the article was delivered.

DELIVERY ISSUES

16 Australia Post obligations

- 16.1 Australia Post will use its best endeavours to deliver articles in accordance with these terms and conditions and Appendix 2.
- 16.2 Notwithstanding clause 16.1, where an article is lodged for carriage and that article does not comply with these terms and conditions Australia Post is not obliged to deliver that article and lodgment shall in no way constitute acceptance of the article for carriage by Australia Post.

17 Articles "in dispute"

- 17.1 Where a person claims:
- 17.1.1 to be the addressee of an article; and
 - 17.1.2 that he may not receive the article if delivered according to these terms and conditions and Appendix 2,
 - 17.1.3 that person may notify Australia Post accordingly at the office from which the article would in the normal course of carriage be delivered or redirected.
- 17.2 On receipt of a notice given under clause 17.1 Australia Post may:
- 17.2.1 if in its reasonable opinion that person is the addressee, deliver the article to that person; or
 - 17.2.2 if Australia Post is not reasonably satisfied that, that person is the addressee Australia Post may at its absolute discretion either:
 - (i) deliver the article to the person who is the addressee in accordance with these terms and conditions; or
 - (ii) mark the article "in dispute" and treat it as being undeliverable to its addressee.

18 Return of articles before delivery

- 18.1 A person who has lodged an article other than an express post article may apply to Australia Post to have the article withheld from delivery and returned to him.
- 18.2 An application under clause 18.1 shall be made in writing, describe the article and be accompanied by the application fee determined by Australia Post for that purpose and shall state the contents of the article and the applicant's reasons for requiring its return.
- 18.3 The applicant shall undertake to pay to Australia Post any costs incurred by Australia Post in sending messages by telephone or an electronic mail services in connection with the withholding and return of the article and, in the case of a parcel or a parcel post satchel, the postage payable on the carriage of the article from the office at which it is intercepted to the applicant.
- 18.4 No article, other than a parcel or a parcel post satchel, shall be returned to an applicant under this clause unless an authorised person determines –
- 18.4.1 that the applicant is the sender of the article and that:

- (i) in the reasonable opinion of Australia Post there are special reasons for permitting the article to be withdrawn and returned; or
 - (ii) the person to whom the article is addressed has consented to its return.
- 18.5 Neither the fee paid pursuant to clause 18.2 nor the costs incurred by the applicant pursuant to clause 18.3 shall be refunded or remitted in the event of an article being delivered before it can be withdrawn from delivery.
- 18.6 A parcel or a parcel post satchel may not be withheld from delivery after it has been made up for carriage outside Australia.
- 18.7 Nothing in this clause requires Australia Post to return an article after lodgement and before delivery when Australia Post forms the reasonable opinion that it may not be able to locate the article or that any attempt to locate the article would cause operational difficulties.

19 Inquiries concerning non-delivery

- 19.1 Australia Post may, in its absolute discretion, make an investigation of the alleged non-delivery of an article if:
 - 19.1.1 the applicant is able to provide a description of the article and of the method of lodgment which, in the reasonable opinion of Australia Post, are sufficient to enable inquiries to be made;
 - 19.1.2 the application is made after the time when the article would have been delivered in the normal course of post; and
 - 19.1.3 the application is made within 6 months after lodgment and, in the case of a registered article, article covered under Extra Cover or an express post parcel, is accompanied by the official receipt postmarked and issued at the time of lodgment.

20 Redirection before delivery

- 20.1 A redirection before delivery service and a holding service is provided by Australia Post and is subject to the terms and conditions applicable to that service at the time of the application.

21 Redirection after delivery

- 21.1 Subject to clause 22, where Australia Post has delivered a postal article and the addressee no longer receives articles so delivered by reason of his or her temporary or permanent change of address, any person receiving the article may:
 - 21.1.1 redirect it to the addressee by altering the direction on the article and lodging it for further carriage in accordance with these terms and conditions; or
 - 21.1.2 endorse it "Left address" or words of similar meaning and lodge it with Australia Post.
- 21.2 No article that has been carried by registered post shall be lodged pursuant to clause 21.1.1 otherwise than for further carriage by registered post.
- 21.3 Where an article lodged pursuant to clause 21.1.1 appears to have been opened and tampered with before it was so lodged, postage shall be payable on the further carriage of the article as if it were an original carriage from the office at which it was so lodged to the place of delivery.

- 21.4 Subject to clause 21.3, where an article lodged pursuant to clause 21.1.1:
- 21.4.1 is a parcel post article, an express post container or an express post parcel;
and
- 21.4.2 its further carriage would entail carriage from the office at which it is so lodged to another office for delivery,
- the amount payable for further carriage of the article shall be limited to the postage as if the article were being carried as an original article and shall exclude any registration or Extra Cover fee otherwise payable on such carriage.
- 21.5 Subject to clauses 21.3 and 21.4, no postage is payable on a further carriage effected pursuant to this clause.

22 Sender's prohibition on redirection

- 22.1 Articles may be redirected unless the sender and Australia Post have entered into an agreement whereby Australia Post has agreed to permit the sender to prohibit redirection.

23 Unclaimed articles

- 23.1 Where an article is addressed for delivery:
- 23.1.1 at an office; or
- 23.1.2 to an addressee at a hotel or other accommodation establishment, other than the proprietor, an employee, or a member of the family of the proprietor or an employee of that establishment,
- and has not been claimed by the addressee within 30 days after the date on which the article is delivered to that office or establishment, the article shall be treated as an article unclaimed by its addressee.
- 23.2 The proprietor of an establishment shall return any article unclaimed by its addressee to an office of Australia Post.

24 Undeliverable articles

- 24.1 Unless otherwise agreed between Australia Post and the customer, an article may be deemed undeliverable if:
- 24.1.1 in the reasonable opinion of Australia Post it does not bear an address sufficient for delivery; and
- 24.1.2 it is endorsed, or is otherwise known to Australia Post, that the addressee is unknown or does not receive articles at the address on the article; or
- 24.1.3 there are no receptacles or facilities for receipt of the article or the receptacle or facilities provided are, in the reasonable opinion of Australia Post, inadequate.
- 24.2 An article lodged for international carriage is deemed undeliverable if it is not lodged with the required documents including but not limited to a consignment note, air bill, customs declaration or dangerous goods declaration.
- 24.3 An article addressed to an office for delivery is deemed undeliverable unless addressed:

- 24.3.1 through a post office box, locked bag or private mail bag;
 - 24.3.2 as a parcel post article or an article carried by the cash-on-delivery service;
 - 24.3.3 to a visitor or tourist who has been resident in the area served by the office for less than 6 months;
 - 24.3.4 to an addressee who has been given prior permission by Australia Post to have articles addressed to him at that office; or
 - 24.3.5 to an addressee resident in an area to which delivery is not provided.
- 24.4 Where the address on an article addressed for delivery pursuant to clauses 24.3.2, 24.3.3 or 24.3.4 does not include:
- 24.4.1 the family name of the addressee; and
 - 24.4.2 either the given name of the addressee or the initial letter of that name, Australia Post may treat the article as undeliverable.

25 Refused articles

- 25.1 Where in the reasonable opinion of Australia Post an addressee has declined to accept delivery of an article or where an article has been placed in a box or bag in which the addressee usually receives articles and is subsequently returned to Australia Post endorsed with an indication that the addressee has declined to accept delivery of the article, the article shall be deemed to be refused by its addressee.

26 Method of dealing with unclaimed etc. articles

- 26.1 Subject to clauses 26.3 and 28, where an article is unclaimed, refused by, or undeliverable to, its addressee, the article shall:
- 26.1.1 if it has a return address be delivered to that address;
 - 26.1.2 if it has no return address and it has been opened pursuant to the Act; and
 - (i) if, in the reasonable opinion of Australia Post, the correct address of the addressee of the article has been ascertained – be delivered to that address; or
 - (ii) if the correct address of the addressee has not been so ascertained, but the address of the sender has been ascertained – be returned to the sender; and
 - 26.1.3 in any other case - be treated as an undeliverable article and dealt with in accordance with clause 27.
- 26.2 Where delivery of an article is attempted pursuant to clause 26.1 and the article is unclaimed or refused by, or undeliverable to, the person to whom it is so directed, it shall be treated as an undeliverable article and dealt with in accordance with clause 27.
- 26.3 Where a parcel post article, an express post container or an express post parcel is returned to its sender pursuant to this clause and its return entails its carriage from the office at which it was held for delivery to another office, postage is payable on that carriage as if it were an original carriage between the office at which it was held for delivery and the return address of the sender.

27 Disposal of undeliverable articles

- 27.1 An undeliverable article may be disposed of by Australia Post as follows:
- 27.1.1 in compliance with any court order;
 - 27.1.2 if the carriage of the article is prohibited and the article and its contents have been forfeited to the Commonwealth under the Act, and/or if the article constitutes, or is reasonably believed to constitute, evidence of a criminal offence, by providing the article to the appropriate police force, customs service, prosecuting authority or commission of inquiry, as the case may be, provided, however, that nothing requires Australia Post to so provide the article where in Australia Post's reasonable opinion the article will not be accepted; or
 - 27.1.3 if the article is not disposed of in accordance with clauses 27.1.1 or 27.1.2, then the article may be sold, destroyed or otherwise disposed of, in such a manner as Australia Post deems fit. If the article is sold, the sale proceeds, less any costs incurred by Australia Post associated with the sale, shall be paid either into Australia Post's Unclaimed Money Fund or to such charitable fund as Australia Post may select at its absolute discretion, including a charitable fund established by Australia Post or a Related Body Corporate of Australia Post.

28 Recovery of postage on underpaid articles

- 28.1 Subject to clause 28.4 where an underpaid article is detected in the course of carriage and the sender can be identified without opening the article, Australia Post may endorse the article to the effect that deficient postage is to be claimed from the sender and carry the article for delivery as a fully paid article.
- 28.2 Where an article is carried pursuant to clause 28.1, Australia Post may deliver a written notice to the sender requiring payment of the amount of the deficient postage and the amount of the service fee determined for the purpose of this clause.
- 28.3 Where an underpaid article is detected during the course of carriage and the sender of the article cannot be identified without opening the article, the article shall:
- 28.3.1 if it appears to have been lodged by being handed to an employee at an office, be carried for delivery as a fully paid article; or
 - 28.3.2 it does not appear to have been so lodged, be endorsed with an indication of the amount of the deficient postage and the amount of the service fee determined by Australia Post for the purpose of this clause and shall, subject to clause 28.6, be delivered to the addressee with the written request that the addressee either pay the endorsed amount in the manner specified in the request or mark the article as being refused and return it to Australia Post.
- 28.4 Where an underpaid article is detected in the post and;
- 28.4.1 The sender regularly lodges underpaid articles; or
 - 28.4.2 Australia Post has reason to believe that the article was underpaid by the sender with the intention of evading postage known to be payable on the article,

Australia Post may withhold the article from further carriage and may deliver a written notice to the sender or addressee requiring payment of the amount of deficient postage and any service fee determined by Australia Post for the purpose of this clause before the carriage of the article is continued.

- 28.5 Where the sender of an article has not, within seven days after receipt of the notice delivered to him pursuant to clause 28.4 with respect to the article, complied with that notice, Australia Post may treat the article as an undeliverable article.
- 28.6 Where the addressee of an underpaid article either:
- 28.6.1 Returns the article to Australia Post as a refused article; or
 - 28.6.2 fails to pay the amounts owing on the article within seven days after receipt of the notice delivered in respect of the article pursuant to clause 28.4
- Australia Post may treat the article as undeliverable to its addressee and where Australia Post can identify the sender in accordance with the Act, Australia Post may return it to the sender on payment by them of the endorsed amounts in the manner described in clauses 28.2 or 28.4.
- 28.7 Notwithstanding anything contained in this clause there shall be no obligation upon Australia Post to carry an article;
- 28.7.1 Upon which no postage has been paid; or
 - 28.7.2 where the article is lodged for international carriage, and the article is underpaid,
- and Australia Post may at its discretion either treat the article as underpaid and deal with it in accordance with this clause or deem the article to be undeliverable.

DISCRETIONARY CARRIAGE

29 Articles which have irregular dimensions or which are overweight

- 29.1 Australia Post may refuse, in its absolute discretion, to carry an article if in the reasonable opinion of Australia Post the article weighs more than 22 kilograms; or if it is a parcel:
- 29.1.1 the parcel either exceeds 105 centimetres in length or the girth exceeds 140 centimetres; and
 - 29.1.2 two dimensions (length, width or breadth or in the case of a cylindrical article, length and diameter) are each less than 5 centimetres.
- 29.2 If Australia Post accepts an article referred to in clause 29.1 for carriage it may make such terms and conditions in relation to the article's carriage and may charge such fee, in addition to any postage, which might otherwise be payable, as it deems appropriate.

30 Articles which may hinder effective carriage or which have improper postal information

- 30.1 Australia Post may refuse, in its absolute discretion, to carry an article if –
- 30.1.1 any postage required to be affixed to the article is affixed elsewhere than in the top right-hand corner of the surface on which the article is addressed or are insufficiently separated from the address to prevent it being obscured when the stamps are postmarked;
 - 30.1.2 the article is marked with any word or symbol that is likely to delay or misdirect its carriage;
 - 30.1.3 the article is an alternatively delivered article;

- 30.1.4 before being lodged, except in the course of redirection pursuant to clause 21, the envelope or wrapping on the article, or any stamps on the envelope or wrapping, have been postmarked;
- 30.1.5 the name and address of the person to whom the article is directed have not been:
- (i) legibly written on the largest surface or on a label securely attached on the largest surface of the article so as to run parallel to the longest dimension of that surface; or
 - (ii) in any other case legibly written on a label that is securely attached to the article;
- 30.1.6 by reason of the method by which the envelope or wrapping of the article is fastened or the incompleteness of the enclosure of its contents, it is likely to interfere with or interrupt the processing of other articles;
- 30.1.7 the material used in the envelope or wrapping on the article is likely to cause articles to adhere to each other or to postal machinery;
- 30.1.8 the envelope or wrapping on the article, by reason of its colour or transparency, is likely to delay sorting;
- 30.1.9 the envelope or wrapping is marked off into divisions intended for the insertion of several addresses;
- 30.1.10 the article has affixed to or printed on the surface on which it is addressed, non-postal stamps, washed stamps, labels or designs, charity labels, other labels, designs or impressions likely to be mistaken for unused postage stamps, postage meter impressions or postmarks;
- 30.1.11 the envelope or wrapping of the article resembles an envelope used for the carriage of articles able to be carried by an electronic mail services or has written on it any word which might lead the addressee to believe that the article has been carried by electronic mail;
- 30.1.12 the envelope or wrapping of the article has affixed to or printed on the surface on which it is addressed, a label or information which states or implies that a particular Australia Post service has been used in the carriage of the article when the article has not been lodged for carriage by such a service; or
- 30.1.13 the envelope or wrapping of the article has affixed to or printed on the outer surface any text or image which, in Australia Post's opinion, could be considered offensive or defamatory.

MISCELLANEOUS

31 Applying postmarks

- 31.1 Australia Post may apply postmarks to postal articles in the course of the post, as it determines.
- 31.2 Australia Post may apply a postmark which comprises or includes:
- 31.2.1 information of general or local interest; and or
 - 31.2.2 advertising material on its own behalf or on behalf of another, as it determines.
- 31.3 An official mail postmark:
- 31.3.1 is a mark, label or design authorised by Australia Post for the purpose of paying postage;
 - 31.3.2 may only be used by Australia Post, or with Australia Post's express written authority;
 - 31.3.3 may be applied and used at the discretion of Australia Post for the purposes of carriage of postal articles.
- 31.4 An envelope, other outer wrapping of any postal article, or address label, endorsed with an official mail postmark must not be used, or re-used, by any person without the express authority of Australia Post.
- 31.5 Any attempt to use, apply, forge or copy any official mail postmark, and/or any envelope, other outer wrapping of any postal article, or address label, endorsed with an official mail postmark, without the express authority of Australia Post, for the purpose of securing, or attempting to secure, the provision of a postal service without the due payment of postage, may be deemed to constitute a contravention of Commonwealth criminal law, and may result in a prosecution for an offence.
- 31.6 The provisions of the Australia Post Terms and Conditions do not apply to official mail postmark, or to any envelope, or other outer wrapping of any postal article, endorsed with an official mail postmark, except to the extent determined by Australia Post from time to time.

32 Use of private aerogrammes

- 32.1 No person shall lodge an aerogramme in Australia for carriage by post unless:
- 32.1.1 the aerogramme has been supplied by Australia Post; or
 - 32.1.2 the aerogramme:
 - (i) is of a quality, colour, size, shape and format approved by Australia Post;
 - (ii) has a mass, when a postage stamp is affixed to it, of not more than the mass of an aerogramme supplied by Australia Post; and
 - (iii) has the words "Approved by Australia Post as aerogramme no." printed on it followed by an approval number issued by Australia Post in connection with its use.

PART B – DOMESTIC POSTAL SERVICES

LETTER MAIL CARRIAGE

33 Air Mail

- 33.1 All letter mail, except as provided for in clause 33.2, may be carried by air transport where that carriage would expedite its delivery and it is practical to do so.
- 33.2 Letter mail lodged for carriage by the following services is not required to be carried by air transport:
- 33.2.1 PreSort Letter service when carried at offpeak delivery times;
 - 33.2.2 local delivery service for letter mail; or
 - 33.2.3 unaddressed delivery service.

PHILATELIC

34 Philatelic sales and services

- 34.1 Australia Post may from time to time designate offices, or counters in offices, as philatelic sections from which any philatelic materials or services provided by Australia Post may be obtained.
- 34.2 Stamps will be sold by Australia Post without regard to differences in the designs or issues of particular denominations, except at philatelic sections.
- 34.3 Australia Post may from time to time limit the quantities of stamps of a particular design or issue that may be purchased by each purchaser from philatelic sections.
- 34.4 Philatelic materials and services may be obtained by post from such philatelic sections and in accordance with such conditions as Australia Post may from time to time publish.
- 34.5 Australia Post may publish dates before or after which stamps of any design or issue shall not be sold and may vary any date so published.

35 Overseas philatelic services

- 35.1 Philatelic materials issued by postal administrations of Territories and overseas countries may be sold by Australia Post at philatelic sections in accordance with arrangements made between Australia Post and those administrations.
- 35.2 Philatelic materials and stamps issued by Australia Post and may, subject to any arrangement referred to in clause 35.1, by other postal administrations, be sold overseas by postal administrations and other agents appointed by Australia Post for that purpose.

36 Philatelic postmarking

- 36.1 Subject to clauses 36.2 and 36.7, where stamps are sold by Australia Post from philatelic sections, they shall be sold at face value.
- 36.2 Where stamps sold by Australia Post from philatelic sections are:
- 36.2.1 specially packed; or

- 36.2.2 affixed to envelopes or other wrappings, a charge may be made by Australia Post for the pack or wrapping in addition to the face value of the stamp.
- 36.3 Where a person who purchases a stamp from a philatelic section for a value equivalent to or greater than the postage payable on a standard article, requests at the time of purchase that the stamp be lightly postmarked, that postmarking shall, if made, be made without charge.
- 36.4 A stamp postmarked pursuant to clause 36.3 may be unaffixed, affixed to an envelope or wrapping pursuant to clause 36.2.2 or affixed to an envelope or wrapping provided by the purchaser.
- 36.5 Where a stamp has been postmarked pursuant to clause 36.3 and delivered by Australia Post to a purchaser, or at the purchaser's direction, that stamp is not valid for the payment of postage.
- 36.6 A person who requests Australia Post to affix a stamp that has been purchased from a philatelic section to an article provided by him shall pay to Australia Post the charge determined by Australia Post for that purpose.
- 36.7 Australia Post may from time to time decide that particular stamps issued by Australia Post may be:
- 36.7.1 overprinted by indelibly marking the surface of each stamp with the word "specimen" which may be displayed in one or more than one form of type face;
 - 36.7.2 specially packed or affixed to envelopes or other wrappings;
 - 36.7.3 made available for sale, either individually or in sets, at philatelic sections; and
 - 36.7.4 sold at such composite charge as Australia Post may determine for the stamps and the packs or envelopes with them.
- 36.8 Where a stamp has been obliterated pursuant to clause 36.7.1, that stamp or any stamp in a set made up for sale in a pack or affixed to an envelope, shall not be valid for the payment of postage.

EXPRESS POST

37 Express Post – General

- 37.1 An article may be lodged in an Express Post envelope, Express Post container, or an Express Post Platinum container supplied by Australia Post or as an Express Post parcel or Express Post Platinum parcel for carriage by the Express Post service.
- 37.2 Where an article lodged pursuant to clause 37.1 does not comply with conditions applicable at the time of lodgement as published by Australia Post delivery will not be guaranteed in accordance with clause 39.1.
- 37.3 Express Post envelopes may be used only for the carriage of documents.

38 Express Post – Rates of postage

- 38.1 Postage payable for the carriage of an Express Post envelope, Express Post container or Express Post Platinum container shall be at the rates determined by Australia Post for carriage by the Express Post service at the time the Express Post envelope, Express Post container or Express Post Platinum container was purchased.

- 38.2 Postage payable for the carriage of an Express Post parcel or Express Post Platinum parcel shall be calculated in accordance with the Express Post parcel rates determined by Australia Post.
- 38.3 When, on lodgement of the article, the barcoded strip which indicates postage is no longer intact or has been tampered with, postage at the prevailing rate shall be due on the Express Post envelope, Express Post container or Express Post Platinum container and no account shall be taken for any amount of prepaid postage.
- 38.4 An Express Post article which does not comply with the conditions for carriage of the Express Post service shall be carried at a rate of postage applicable to the article at the time of lodgment. In assessing the applicable rate of postage, a credit shall be given for postage prepaid on the article which shall be an amount equivalent to the purchase price of a single like article at the time of lodgment. Where the amount credited is less than the applicable rate of postage, the difference shall be affixed to the article by postage stamp.

39 Express Post – Service standards

- 39.1 Australia Post guarantees delivery of Express Post articles within specified times between specified places, when the article is lodged for carriage within Australia by the specified posting times published by Australia Post.
- 39.2 An article that is lodged for carriage by the Express Post service between places where either or both of which have not been specified in accordance with clause 39.1, shall receive priority handling throughout its carriage but shall not be guaranteed delivery within a specified time.
- 39.3 Except for postage rates specified in clause 38, an Express Post article shall be governed by the conditions of the Express Post service prevailing at the time of lodgment and not those conditions prevailing at the time the Express Post article was purchased.
- 39.4 Delivery shall not be guaranteed by Australia Post under clause 39.1 and the article may be deemed undeliverable and returned to the sender where:
- 39.4.1 non-delivery or delivery is caused by events beyond the control of Australia Post including, without limitation, strikes, industrial disputes, labour unrest, natural disasters, Acts of God, floods, fires, weather conditions, war, civil unrest, an incorrectly addressed article or if the article is an Express Post Platinum container, or parcel the premises are unattended or there is no person present to whom the article can be delivered in accordance with these terms and conditions; or
- 39.4.2 the addressee has requested a redirection of articles before delivery by the Redirection Service or otherwise.

39A Delivery signature

- 39A.1 Australia Post shall obtain a signature from the person to whom an Express Post Platinum container or parcel is delivered.

39B Express Post – Additional services

- 39B1 The Express Post Platinum service provides compensation on the article in the sum of $100 and the cost of this is included in the fee for the service. Additional compensation cover up to $,5000 may be purchased under the Extra Cover service.

The terms and conditions are those that apply to the Extra Cover service provided by Australia Post.

- 39B.2 The Extra Cover service and the compensation in the sum of $100 does not apply to an express post article. Australia Post's liability is limited as provided for in clause 10 'Limitation of Liability Release and Indemnity' of the Domestic Registered Post Service Terms and Conditions in Schedule 10A.

40 Express Post – Failure to meet service standards

- 40.1 Where an Express Post article is not delivered within a time specified by Australia Post for that delivery and the provisions of clauses 40.2 and 40.3 have been satisfied, Australia Post will provide to the customer a replacement Express Post envelope or Express Post container or an Express Post Platinum container or the postage paid on the carriage of an Express Post parcel or an Express Post Platinum parcel will be refunded to the person who paid it.
- 40.2 A customer wishing to claim an entitlement under clause 40.1 must produce to an office:
- 40.2.1 the barcoded strip endorsed "sender to keep"; or
- 40.2.2 the posting receipt.
- 40.3 Australia Post is not liable for the guarantee under clause 40.1 unless:
- 40.3.1 postage has been paid for the carriage of an article by the Express Post service;
- 40.3.2 the article was lodged by the specified posting time in accordance with the specified lodgment conditions;
- 40.3.3 the article is not excluded from guaranteed delivery by clause 39.2;
- 40.3.4 the failure to deliver the article within the specified time was not caused by events beyond the control of Australia Post as set out in clause 39.4; or
- 40.3.5 the sender was not alerted to the possibility that the article might not be delivered as guaranteed by either:
- (i) a notice displayed on the post-box or at the office at which the article was lodged; or
- (ii) other public announcement or advertisement given to the public at large or to those members of the public potentially affected.
- 40.4 The provision of a replacement Express Post envelope or container or the refund of postage on an Express Post parcel or Express Post Platinum parcel under clause 40.1 shall be additional to any compensation which may be payable under clause 70 for lost or damaged articles.

PART C – INTERNATIONAL POSTAL SERVICES

PRELIMINARY

45 Interpretation

- 45.1 A word or expression used in this Part shall, unless the contrary intention appears herein or in the dictionary hereto, have the same meaning as in the Universal Postal Union's Universal Postal Convention.
- 45.2 For the purposes of this Part, a place in an external Territory shall be deemed not to be a place outside Australia.

46 Applicability of these Terms and Conditions to overseas mail

46.1 The provisions of this Part shall apply to:

46.1.1 articles lodged in Australia for carriage to a place outside Australia; and

46.1.2 articles received in Australia from a place outside Australia for delivery in Australia, except to the extent that those provisions are inconsistent with a provision of any convention that impose obligations on Australia in relation to matters within the functions of Australia Post or have been adopted by Australia in pursuance of that convention.

47 Customs documentation

- 47.1 All articles lodged for international carriage or carriage to an external territory shall be accompanied by the appropriate customs documentation.
- 47.2 Where any law, including any act, regulation or direction, applies to the carriage of international articles, Australia Post may treat any article covered under clause 47.1 as if that law applies to the carriage of that article.

48 Availability of services

- 48.1 The availability of a category of service to a particular place shall be contingent on arrangements made between Australia Post and the postal administration of that place.
- 48.2 Details of the availability, type and features of services available from time to time to overseas countries are set out in Schedule 31 will be made available in the International post services guide or the Australia Post website at auspost.com.au

49 Air and Sea Mail rates of postage

- 49.1 Australia Post may nominate zones to which articles lodged for international carriage may be carried by air or sea mail and the postage payable in respect of that carriage will be calculated in accordance with the air or sea mail rates determined by Australia Post for that zone and taking into account any other relevant pricing factors, including the weight and nature of the article, the speed of delivery, the nature of the packaging and any additional services acquired.
- 49.2 Where printed papers are:
- 49.2.1 lodged for carriage by air or sea mail to a place outside Australia;
 - 49.2.2 addressed to the same addressee; and
 - 49.2.3 enclosed in a special bag, the mass of which and its contents is not more than 16 kilograms
- a print post rate determined by Australia Post applies.

50 International postage prepaid articles

- 50.1 International postage prepaid articles shall be at the rate, and comply with the conditions for the carriage of such articles, as determined and published by Australia Post.
- 50.2 International postage prepaid articles which do not comply with the conditions for carriage shall be carried at the rate of prepaid postage or at a rate of postage applicable to the article at the time of lodgement, whichever is the greater. In assessing the applicable rate of postage, a credit shall be given for postage prepaid on the article which shall be an amount equivalent to the purchase price of a single like article at the time of lodgment. Where the amount credited is less than the applicable rate of postage the difference shall be affixed to the article by postage stamps.

51 International reply coupons

- 51.1 An international reply coupon may be purchased from Australia Post on payment of the amount determined by Australia Post for that purpose.
- 51.2 Where more than 100 international reply coupons are presented to Australia Post at any one time for exchange for postage stamps, Australia Post may require the person presenting the coupons to affix the stamps to articles and lodge the articles at that time.

LODGMET AND DELIVERY ISSUES

52 Instruction in respect of non-delivery of postal parcels

- 52.1 The sender of a postal parcel that is lodged for carriage to a place outside Australia may not indicate in respect of that parcel that in the event of its non-delivery an advice of non-delivery of the parcel is to be dispatched to him or to a third party residing in Australia.

52.2 Where a postal parcel is received from a place outside Australia for delivery in Australia with an indication referred to in clause 52.1, that indication shall not be complied with.

53 Demurrage

53.1 Where an article received from a place outside Australia for delivery in Australia:

53.1.1 weighs more than 500 grams;

53.1.2 is an article –

(i) containing goods on which duties of Customs are payable; or

(ii) imported for a commercial purpose (whether liable to duties of Customs or not) and stored at a gateway mail facility;

53.1.3 is not addressed to a person on board a ship;

53.1.4 is not subsequently returned to its country of origin as an undeliverable article; and

53.1.5 remains undelivered, at the place at which it was assessed for duty, for more than 96 hours (excluding weekends and public holidays) after the despatch to the addressee of the article of a notification of its arrival, demurrage is payable on that article, at the rate fixed by Australia Post, in respect of each 24 hours, or part of 24 hours, in excess of those 96 hours during which the article remains undelivered.

53.2 An article shall not be delivered until any demurrage payable on it has been paid.

54 Articles posted abroad by or on behalf of Australian residents

54.1 This clause applies to an article lodged by a person as part of a lodgment of more than 300 articles during any period of 30 days in a place outside Australia for carriage to Australia, hereafter referred to as "an article posted abroad".

54.2 For the purposes of clause 54.1:

54.2.1 a person shall be deemed to have lodged an article if, acting either in Australia or elsewhere, he causes it to be lodged or the article is lodged on his behalf;

54.2.2 "person" means, in relation to the lodgment of an article posted abroad:

(i) an individual whose usual place of residence is in Australia;

(ii) a body corporate that is incorporated in Australia or that, not being incorporated in Australia, has either its central management or control in Australia or its voting power controlled by shareholders whose usual places of residence are in Australia; and

54.2.3 where an article posted abroad:

(i) has an Australian return address printed on it;

(ii) contains a response piece which bears an Australian address; or

(iii) includes information which enables the recipient to respond to a person at an Australian address by any means of communication, then

(iv) the person named in the Australian return address;

- (v) where no person is named in the Australian return address, the owner and/or occupier of the Australian return address; or
 - (vi) the person to whom any response is able to be directed,
- shall be deemed to have caused the article to have been lodged.

54.3 Where a person:

54.3.1 notifies Australia Post of the number, type and date and place of lodgment of articles posted abroad by that person; and

54.3.2 pays to Australia Post in a manner approved by Australia Post an amount equal to the postage that would be payable on those articles if they were lodged at the place at which they are, or will be, first received in Australia for carriage to their addressees;

the articles may be delivered as addressed.

54.4 Where an article posted abroad has been carried to Australia and the person who lodged it has not given notice pursuant to clause 54.3.1 or has given notice but has failed to make payment in a manner approved by Australia Post, Australia Post may:

54.4.1 give a written "notice of delivery" to that person that the article has been detected in the course of carriage and that it has been delivered as addressed, without prejudice to any action which may be taken by Australia Post in respect of any further articles posted abroad by that person which may be received by Australia Post; or

54.4.2 retain the article and give a written "notice of retention" to that person that the article has been retained and the reason for the article's retention.

54.5 Where Australia Post has given a notice of retention to a person, that person may:

54.5.1 direct Australia Post to destroy the article; or 54.5.2 pay to Australia Post an amount of postage in respect of the article calculated under clause 54.3.2.

54.6 Where a person directs Australia Post under clause 54.5.1 to destroy an article, the article may be destroyed or returned to the country in which it was lodged.

54.7 Where a person makes payment in respect of an article under clause 54.5.2 in a manner approved by Australia Post, the article may be delivered as addressed.

54.8 An application may be made to Australia Post for review of a decision to retain an article under clause 54.4.2.

54.9 An application pursuant to clause 54.8 may not be made except:

54.9.1 by the person to whom notice has been given in respect of an article; and 54.9.2 within 14 days after the date on which the notice was received by that person.

54.10 Where notice of retention has been given to a person in respect of an article and that person has not taken action under clause 54.5 and has not made an application under clause 54.8 in respect of the article within 14 days after receiving the notice, the article may be returned to the country in which it was lodged.

54.10.1 Where:

- (i) an application has been made under clause 54.8 in respect of an article;
- (ii) Australia Post has affirmed the decision under review; and

(iii) the person to whom a notice of retention was given, has not taken action under clause 54.5 within 14 days of the date upon which the Australia Post's decision was notified, the article may be returned to the country in which it was lodged.

54.11 Any notification under this clause shall be deemed to have been properly given by sending written notice to the last known address of the recipient and the date that such notice is deemed to have been received by the recipient shall be the time that delivery is usually effected by ordinary post.

55 Articles posted abroad in a country where sender does not reside

55.1 Where, during any period of 30 days, a person lodges outside Australia more than 300 articles in a place other than the country in which the person resides, for carriage to Australia, those articles shall be delivered by Australia Post to addressees if the postal administration of the country in which the articles were lodged has an arrangement to reimburse Australia Post for the cost of delivery of the articles.

55.2 Where there is no agreement with the postal administration of the country in which the articles in clause 55.1 have been lodged, then those articles shall either:

55.2.1 be returned by Australia Post by surface mail to the postal administration of the country of lodgment; or

55.2.2 upon payment to Australia Post by the person lodging the articles of a sum equivalent to the domestic postage due on the articles had they been lodged for post in Australia, the articles shall be delivered in Australia to addressees. If such payment is not made within 14 days of demand, then instead of returning the articles under clause 55.2.1, the articles may be destroyed by Australia Post.

55.3 For the purposes of clause 55.1:

55.3.1 "person" includes any body capable of suing or being sued in its own right;

55.3.2 an incorporated body shall be deemed to be resident in the country of its incorporation;

55.3.3 a person shall be deemed to have lodged an article if he causes it to be lodged or the article is lodged on his behalf;

55.3.4 a person shall be deemed to have lodged an article other than in the country in which the person resides, if:

(i) the article has any return address (other than an Australian address) printed on it which is located outside the country of lodgment; or

(ii) the article includes information which enables the recipient to respond to a person by any means of communication at an address (other than an Australian address) outside the country of lodgment;

55.3.5 an article shall be deemed to have been lodged in the country which has:

(i) issued the postage stamp affixed to the article; or

(ii) authorised the use of postage prepayment impressions in respect of the article; and

55.3.6 mail transhipped between postal administrations for onforwarding to another postal administration in accordance with the Universal Postal Union Convention, shall not be regarded as having been lodged in the country of transhipment.

INTERNATIONAL – LETTERS

56 Registered-Post International – Conditions of Service

- 56.1 The Registered Post International letter service is only available for articles lodged using a Registered Post international pre-paid envelope supplied by Australia Post and is limited to the carriage of documents weighing less than 500g.
- 56.2 The Signature on Delivery feature of the Registered Post International letter service will be subject to the applicable conditions and limitations set out in Schedule 30 of these Terms and Conditions.
- 56.3 For the purposes of this clause, documents includes correspondence, papers and forms, but does not include photographs, calenders, diaries, books or magazines. Currency and securities or negotiable instruments payable to bearer are prohibited items for this service.

PART D – PROHIBITED GOODS

PROHIBITED AND DANGEROUS GOODS

57 Prohibited goods

- 57.1 The following prohibited goods shall not be lodged for carriage by post and are prohibited from carriage by post:
- 57.1.1 any article whose possession or carriage by post is prohibited by a law of the Commonwealth, a State or Territory;
 - 57.1.2 any poison, drug or medicine except as permitted by clause 58;
 - 57.1.3 any dangerous goods except as permitted by clause 59;
 - 57.1.4 a liquid which has not been properly packed in accordance with Appendix 3 or, if the liquid is a permitted dangerous good, which has not been properly packed in accordance with the requirements of clause 59;
 - 57.1.5 a paste, powder or tablet which has not been properly packed in accordance with Appendix 3 or, if the paste, powder or tablet is a permitted dangerous good, has not been properly packed in accordance with the requirements of clause 59;
 - 57.1.6 an article containing any object with a sharp edge or point not equipped with a securely fitted sheath or guard, which is capable of cutting or penetrating the cover of the article containing it or the cover of an article with which it may come in contact during carriage and which has not been properly packed in accordance with Appendix 3;
 - 57.1.7 an article which in the reasonable opinion of Australia Post is, or is likely to become, physically offensive;
 - 57.1.8 a perishable food which has not been properly packed in accordance with Appendix 3;
 - 57.1.9 any live creature except as permitted by clause 61;
 - 57.1.10 bullion;
 - 57.1.11 bank notes lodged for delivery within Australia which exceed a face value of more than $A200. For the avoidance of doubt, bank notes up to a limit not exceeding the face value of $A200, lodged for delivery within Australia, are not prohibited from carriage if lodged under the registered post service, or under a parcel delivery service which requires a signature on delivery;
 - 57.1.12 bank notes lodged for delivery in the international post,
 - 57.1.13 coins lodged for delivery within Australia which exceed a face value of more than $A200. For the avoidance of doubt, coins up to a limit not exceeding the face value of $A200, lodged for delivery within Australia, are not prohibited from carriage if lodged under the registered post service or under a parcel delivery service which requires a signature on delivery;
 - 57.1.14 coins lodged for delivery in the international post; or
 - 57.1.15 any article in the international post:
 - (i) containing or suspected of containing weapons or items of weaponry,
 1. including grenades, mortar shells or canisters, or parts thereof – even if rendered inert; but

2. not including firearms or firearms parts;
 - (ii) resembling, or which may reasonably be taken for any item excluded in clause 57.1.15 \(i\), including replicas or stage props; and
 - (iii) whether deleterious or not, that may reasonably be construed by its appearance or make up to constitute a potential security risk to persons or property.
- 57.2 If Australia Post believes on reasonable grounds that an article lodged for carriage by post consists of or contains prohibited goods, then Australia Post is not obliged to either deliver the article to the addressee nor return the article to the sender, but shall deal with the article as follows:
- 57.2.1 where the article is, or is reasonably suspected of, containing something that is explosive, dangerous, prohibited or deleterious, it shall be either:
 - (i) rendered safe or destroyed by Australia Post or by others acting with the authority of Australia Post; or
 - (ii) delivered up to the police, defence or emergency services,and the cost of rendering safe or the cost of destruction shall be claimable from the sender; or
 - 57.2.2 if clause 57.2.1 does not apply and the article is physically offensive, it may be destroyed immediately by Australia Post in accordance with the Act; or
 - 57.2.3 if clauses 57.2.1 and 57.2.2 do not apply and the article constitutes, or is reasonably suspected of constituting, evidence of a criminal offence, it may be provided to the appropriate police force, customs service or prosecuting authority, as the case may be; or
 - 57.2.4 if clauses 57.2.1, 57.2.2 or 57.2.3 do not apply and the article and its contents have been forfeited to the Commonwealth under the Act and the article contains:
 - (i) coins or banknotes - these shall be paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund; or
 - (ii) any item of value likely to be greater than the cost of disposal - the item may be sold by public auction or otherwise and the proceeds shall be used to pay to Australia Post the cost of disposal and any balance shall be paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund; or
 - (iii) any other item – the item shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as Australia Post deems fit, and Australia Post shall be entitled to claim any costs of disposal from the sender; or
 - 57.2.5 if it is subsequently found that the article does not consist of or contain prohibited goods, the article shall be further carried by post in accordance with these terms and conditions.
 - 57.2.6 Any costs incurred by Australia Post in relation to rendering safe or destroying an article pursuant to this clause shall be recoverable from the sender.

58 Poisons, drugs or medicine

- 58.1 A poison, drug or medicine which is a narcotic substance shall not be lodged for carriage by post nor carried by post.
- 58.2 If the article is one to which section 90T of the Act applies being an article reasonably believed to consist of, or contain, certain drugs or other chemical compounds, then the article will be dealt according to that section.
- 58.3 A poison, drug or medicine which is also an infectious perishable or a non-infectious perishable biological substance may be lodged for carriage by post in accordance with clause 59 provided however that an infectious perishable biological substance may not be lodged for international carriage.
- 58.4 A poison, drug or medicine which is not an infectious perishable biological substance may be carried by international carriage in accordance with clause 59 provided however that if carriage of the article is prohibited in a country of transit or destination the article will not be carried.
- 58.5 A poison, drug or medicine which is, or is to be, lawfully prescribed for therapeutic purposes by a qualified medical practitioner, dentist or veterinary surgeon, may be lodged and carried by post providing:
- 58.5.1 it is addressed for delivery to a qualified medical practitioner, dentist, veterinary surgeon, pharmacist, regulatory body, hospital or clinic, or to a person for whose therapeutic benefit the substance has been lawfully prescribed by a qualified medical practitioner, dentist or veterinary surgeon;
 - 58.5.2 it does not contain a quantity of any poison, drug or medicine which exceeds the maximum quantity which may be dispensed at any one time; and
 - 58.5.3 it is packaged and presented in the manner prescribed in the current Technical Instructions of the Civil Aviation Organisation as reflected in the IATA Dangerous Goods Regulations.
- 58.6 A poison, drug or medicine which is an analytical reference standard sample for the use of a laboratory involved in research or maintenance of public health may be lodged outside Australia for delivery within Australia providing:
- 58.6.1 it is addressed to a recognised laboratory;
 - 58.6.2 it does not contain more than 100 milligrams of that substance; and
 - 58.6.3 it is packaged and presented in the manner prescribed in the current Technical Instructions of the Civil Aviation Organisation as reflected in the IATA Dangerous Goods Regulations.

59 Limited classes of dangerous goods which may be carried

- 59.1 Dangerous goods specified in clauses 59.2 to 59.3 inclusive, may be lodged and carried by post providing they are properly packed and comply with such terms and conditions governing their carriage.
- 59.2 Infectious substances (except Category A infectious substances affecting humans (UN2814) and infectious substances affecting animals (UN2900)) which are dangerous goods, and solid carbon dioxide (dry ice) when used as a refrigerant for such infectious substances, may be lodged and carried by post within Australia providing:
- 59.2.1 an article containing such a substance is:
 - (i) addressed to a recognised laboratory, hospital, clinic or regulatory body;

- (ii) lodged at an office for delivery within Australia by:
 1. a qualified medical practitioner or veterinary surgeon;
 2. hospital, clinic, regulatory body or recognised laboratory;
 3. a member of a Commonwealth, State or Territory police force; or
 4. a person who has the authority of the agencies in clause (ii) above;
- (iii) sent at the perishable infectious biological substances rates determined by Australia Post; and
- (iv) packaged and presented in the manner prescribed in the current Technical Instructions of the Civil Aviation Organisation as reflected in the IATA Dangerous Goods Regulations;

59.3 Non-infectious patient specimens for which there is minimal likelihood that pathogens are present may be lodged and carried by post within Australia providing:

59.3.1 an article containing such a substance is:

- (i) addressed to a recognised laboratory, hospital, clinic or regulatory body;
- (ii) lodged at an office by:
 1. a qualified medical practitioner or veterinary surgeon;
 2. hospital, clinic, regulatory body or recognised laboratory;
 3. a member of a Commonwealth, State or Territory police force; or
 4. a person who has the authority of the agencies in clause (ii) above; and
- (iii) packaged and presented in the manner prescribed in the current Technical Instructions of the Civil Aviation Organisation as reflected in the IATA Dangerous Goods Regulations.

59.4 Articles containing lithium ion batteries may be lodged for carriage by air or sea within Australia, provided that:

59.4.1 the batteries are installed in a device;

59.4.2 the batteries are less than 100 Watt hours or contain less than two grams of lithium content; and

59.4.3 the article is packaged, labelled and presented in the manner prescribed in the current Technical Instructions of the Civil Aviation Organisation, as reflected in the IATA Dangerous Goods Regulations.

Further details are available in the Australia Post Dangerous and Prohibited Goods and Packaging Guide, available at auspost.com.au/postguides.

59.5 Articles permitted to be carried within Australia under clause 59.3.1 may be carried outside Australia where the air mail service is available and where carriage of the article is to a destination which is known by Australia Post to permit carriage of the article.

59.6 Poisons, drugs and medicine which are dangerous goods and which have been properly lodged in accordance with clause 60, may be carried by post.

60 Dangerous or prohibited goods declaration

- 60.1 Subject to subclause 59.1:
- 60.1.1 an express post container or an express post parcel;
 - 60.1.2 an express post international envelope or an express post international container;
 - 60.1.3 a parcel lodged for international carriage; or
 - 60.1.4 a parcel lodged for domestic carriage where parcels may be carried by air, shall have affixed to it a declaration (in the form and manner specified by Australia Post) from the sender certifying that the article does not contain any dangerous or prohibited goods.
- 60.2 Where an article contains a dangerous good which is permitted to be carried by post under clause 60, then the article shall have affixed to it the appropriate label and Shipper's Declaration for Dangerous Goods, in the form and manner specified by Australia Post, duly completed by the sender.

61 Live creatures

- 61.1 Live creatures shall not be lodged for carriage by post except as permitted by clause 61.2.
- 61.2 Live bees, silkworms, leeches and harmless insects may be carried by post for delivery within Australia providing:
- 61.2.1 their carriage across state or territory borders is not restricted by a law of the Commonwealth, a State or Territory;
 - 61.2.2 the sender makes application to Australia Post for the carriage of an article containing live bees, silkworms, leeches or harmless insects, by the separate bag service;
 - 61.2.3 an article lodged for carriage by the separate bag service shall have the words "Separate Bag" legibly written or printed in the top left-hand corner of the surface on which the article is addressed;
 - 61.2.4 subject to clause 61.2.5, where an article is carried by the separate bag service, a fee as determined by Australia Post for that purpose is paid in addition to the postage otherwise payable for the carriage of the article;
 - 61.2.5 where a person lodges more than one article for carriage by the separate bag service to the same office of delivery, all articles so lodged at the one time shall be carried for a single fee; and
 - 61.2.6 the contents are packed and presented in the manner prescribed in the current Technical Instructions of the Civil Aviation Organisation as reflected in the IATA Live Animal Regulations.
- 61.3 An article lodged under the separate bag service may be carried by Australia Post without being enclosed in another bag.
- 61.4 Live bees, silkworms, silkworm eggs, leeches and parasites and destroyers of noxious insects intended for the control of those insects may be carried by post for delivery outside Australia providing, if the article is not covered under Extra Cover:
- 61.4.1 the contents are packed in the manner prescribed in the current Technical Instructions of the Civil Aviation Organisation as reflected in the IATA Live Animal Regulations;

- 61.4.2 where the article contains silkworm eggs, the contents must first be packed in a cardboard box or plastic or cloth bag, and unless otherwise agreed, packed and presented in the manner prescribed in the IATA Live Animal Regulations;
- 61.4.3 if the article contains parasites or the destroyers of noxious insects, the article is exchanged between officially recognised institutions of the countries concerned;
- 61.4.4 the wrapping and documentation shall have the words "Live Animals", legibly written on them; and
- 61.4.5 the sender has complied with all legislative requirements for the export of the article and its contents.

PART E – LIMITATION OF AUSTRALIA POST'S LIABILITY

PRELIMINARY

62 Interpretation

62.1 In this part unless the contrary intention appears:

- 62.1.1 "carriage" includes carriage by an employee before lodgment and after delivery in a bag that has been sealed by Australia Post or has been locked or held by a community bag holder for lodgment at an office or for delivery to an addressee;
- 62.1.2 "lost" means unable to be found or located after reasonable inquiries by Australia Post and includes where Australia Post reasonably believes that an article has not been delivered;
- 62.1.3 "non-negotiable securities" includes passports, wills and certificates of title.

EXCLUSIONS AND LIMITATIONS

63 Liability and Indemnity

63.1 This section applies where Australia Post provides a service in relation to the carriage of a letter or article where Australia Post, has not provided the sender with a receipt for the letter or article and where Australia Post, and a person have not entered into any other agreement in relation to liability for loss or damage. Australia Post will not be liable for loss or damage arising from or caused by:

- 63.1.1 the injury, illness or death of any person;
- 63.1.2 misdelivery including delivery otherwise than to the addressee, delayed delivery, early delivery or failure to deliver any letter or article;
- 63.1.3 damage to the contents of an article whether concealed or otherwise, including but not limited to deterioration, contamination or evaporation of any article or thing; or
- 63.1.4 any other loss or damage of any kind,

however caused and whether direct or consequential, including, but not limited to, negligence or breach of contract by Australia Post, its employees, servants or agents, that arises in whole or in part from, or in connection with, any services provided by Australia Post.

64 Liability and indemnity

64.1 This section applies where Australia Post and a person have not entered into any other agreement in relation to liability for loss or damage and where clause 63.1 does not apply. Australia Post will not be liable for loss or damage arising from or caused by:

- 64.1.1 the injury, illness or death of any person unless such injury, illness or death has been caused by the negligence of Australia Post;
- 64.1.2 misdelivery including delivery otherwise than to the addressee, delayed delivery, early delivery or failure to deliver any letter or article;

64.1.3 damage to the contents of an article whether concealed or otherwise, including but not limited to deterioration, contamination or evaporation of any article or thing; or

64.1.4 any other loss or damage of any kind, however caused and whether direct or consequential, that arises in whole or in part from, or in connection with, any services provided by Australia Post.

65 No liability for indirect loss

65.1 Notwithstanding any other clause in the Australia Post Terms and Conditions, Australia Post will not be liable to the customer for any indirect and/or consequential loss or damage whatsoever arising from the provision of any of its Services, including the Special Services.

66 Limitation of liability and release and indemnity

66.1 To the extent permissible by law, Australia Post expressly disclaims all conditions and warranties, express or implied, in respect of the service. Where the law precludes such exclusion and implies certain conditions and warranties into this agreement, the liability of Australia Post for breach of such condition or warranty shall be limited, where legally permissible, at the option of Australia Post, to any one of the following:

66.1.1 supplying the service again; or

66.1.2 payment of the cost of having the service supplied again, or the actual loss or damage.

66.2 Nothing done in pursuance of this Part whether constituted by a refund of postage or a payment of money or otherwise shall constitute an admission of liability by Australia Post.

66.3 The person releases Australia Post from and indemnifies Australia Post against any action, proceeding, claim, demand or prosecution arising from or in connection with any loss, damage, injury, illness or death to any person or property, misdelivery including delivery otherwise than to the addressee, delayed delivery, early delivery or failure to deliver or any other loss or damage of any kind.

67 Force majeure

67.1 Australia Post is not liable for loss or damage to an article where the loss or damage wholly or partly resulted from causes beyond the control of Australia Post including but not limited to natural disasters, acts of war or civil unrest.

68 Employee representations

68.1 No employee, servant or agent has authority to make any representations on behalf of Australia Post concerning the application of this part unless authorised to do so in writing by Australia Post.

69 Merger

69.1 All the rights, immunities and limitations of liability in this Agreement shall continue to have their full force and effect in all circumstances notwithstanding any breach by Australia Post of any of the terms and conditions applicable to the carriage of the article or the provision of the service.

COMPENSATION SCHEME

70 Amount of compensation

70.1 Notwithstanding clauses 63, 64 and 65, where an article has been lost or damaged in the course of carriage otherwise than by registered post, Australia Post may in its absolute discretion elect to replace or repair the article or pay to the claimant an amount equal to:

70.1.1 the replacement value of the article;

70.1.2 the cost of repair of the article; or

70.1.3 up to the sum of $A50,

WHICHEVER IS THE LESSER, together with a refund of postage paid on the carriage of the article which shall not include any fees paid in respect of the Extra Cover, registered post or cash-on-delivery services provided however that where the refund of postage relates to postage paid on a prepaid registered post envelope the refund shall be the amount paid for the envelope.

70.2 Australia Post may defer a decision under this clause for such period of time as Australia Post may reasonably require to determine whether the article has been lost or damaged.

70.3 Nothing in this part prevents Australia Post from, in its absolute discretion, providing to the customer a refund of postage on an article whether or not the article has been lost or damaged.

71 Exclusions

71.1 No amount which is permitted to be paid under this part shall be payable for loss or damage relating to the carriage of articles:

71.1.1 containing bank notes, non-negotiable securities, bullion, negotiable securities, coins, precious or valuable stones, jewellery; or

71.1.2 containing any other substance or thing, the carriage of which is prohibited by or under the law of the Commonwealth, State or Territory or under the Australia Post Terms and Conditions; or

71.1.3 which, in the reasonable opinion of Australia Post, were not or could not be adequately or appropriately packaged for carriage; or

71.1.4 where in the reasonable opinion of Australia Post, the loss or damage arises from inspection or repacking of the article by Customs or Quarantine, as permitted by law; or 71.1.5 where Australia Post upon making reasonable enquiries is unable to determine the extent to which damage was caused or contributed to by Australia Post.

72 Notice of article subsequently found

72.1 Where Australia Post exercises its discretion in favour of the customer pursuant to clause 70 and an article which had been presumed lost is subsequently found, Australia Post may notify the claimant and the claimant may within 30 days of receipt of such notice, obtain delivery of the article upon repayment of any cost incurred by Australia Post or amount paid to the claimant under clause 70.
