

Australia Post General Terms & Conditions (November 2023)

IMPORTANT: These terms and conditions (referred to as the AP Terms) are made under section 32 of the Australian Postal Corporation Act 1989 and can be updated periodically. Unless we have specifically agreed to different terms and conditions with you, the AP Terms will cover how we provide Services to you. The AP Terms set out terms and conditions that you must understand, and requirements that you must meet, before using our Services.

There are 7 sections to the AP Terms:

- Section 1: Commitments to each other
- Section 2: What cannot be sent
- Section 3: Cover for loss or damage
- Section 4: Delivery & collection of mail and other general postal services
- Section 5: How to interpret these AP Terms
- Section 6: Domestic postal services (including Service Schedules)
- Section 7: International postal services (including Service Schedules)

SECTION 1: COMMITMENTS TO EACH OTHER

1.1 Our service commitments to you

- (a) We will use reasonable care and skill to provide the Services. This includes delivering Items which comply with the AP Terms, to addresses within our delivery network.
- (b) We will endeavour to deliver Items according to the delivery timetables applicable to the relevant Services. Unless expressly stated, delivery timetables for our Services are not performance guarantees.
- (c) We acknowledge that the limitations we set out below in relation to our liability for loss, damage, or compensation do not apply to restrict any rights you may have under the Australian Consumer Law.

1.2 Your commitments to us

- (a) By using our Services, you agree to comply with the AP Terms and pay us in full for our Services. The relevant Postage and fees for our Services are published in our Post Charges Guide on the AP Website: https://auspost.com.au/content/dam/auspost_corp/media/documents/post-guides/post-charges-guide-ms11.pdf. Prices of Postage Stamps can also be found on the AP Website: <https://auspost.com.au/sending/stamps/stamp-prices>.
- (b) You will use our Services lawfully and for proper purposes.
- (c) You will not lodge with us for delivery any Item which is: (i) a Prohibited Item or, (ii) a Restricted Item where you have not met our conditions of carriage for that Item.
- (d) If you lodge with us any Item referred to in clause 1.2(c), or if you do not comply with the AP Terms, then you understand and agree that:
 - (i) we are not obliged to deliver that Item;
 - (ii) we may not be liable to pay any compensation to you for any loss or damage to that Item; and
 - (iii) you may have to indemnify us in the manner set out in clause 2.5.
- (e) You will treat our personnel with courtesy and respect in your dealings with us.

1.3 Compensation and our liability

- (a) You may be entitled to some form of compensation if your Item is lost or damaged. This does not preclude any rights you have under the Australian Consumer Law. Please refer to Section 3 for details on compensation and the claims process.
- (b) The amount of any compensation payable is subject to the Act, and other applicable Laws and will also depend on the Service provided, these AP Terms, the loss you incurred and your compliance with clause 1.2.
- (c) We alert you to clauses 3.2-3.4 which deal with circumstances where we limit our liability and clause 2.5 which explains when you have to indemnify us. These clauses have the potential to affect your interests. Please read these carefully before using our Services.

1.4 Changes to the AP Terms

- (a) We may vary the AP Terms (including introducing new terms for our Services) from time to time. We have the right to do this under the Act.
- (b) We will give you reasonable notice of any material change. The period of notice will depend on the nature of the change we are making and/or the nature of the Service that we provide to you. Please note, if the change is due to legal or regulatory reasons or a Force Majeure Event, the notice period could be short.
- (c) We will notify you of any material change to the AP Terms via the AP Website.

1.5 Changes to our fees

- (a) We may update our fees from time to time as permitted by the Act. We will notify you of any changes to our fees by publishing the change on the AP Website and/or notices displayed in our Post Offices.
- (b) We will give you reasonable notice of the fee change before it occurs. The period of notice will depend on the nature of the fee change we are making and the Service that fee change relates to. Please note, if the change is due to legal or regulatory reasons or a Force Majeure Event, the notice period could be short.

1.6 Not a common carrier

- (a) We are not a common carrier and, subject the Act, may refuse to provide Services to any person. We have the discretion not to accept any Items, particularly if those Items do not meet our requirements under the AP Terms, or for operational reasons.
- (b) We may also refuse to accept Items where any packaging or container that has been purchased from us has been defaced or modified, including being modified in a way that the shape or size of the packaging or container has been increased or altered.

1.7 Our right to subcontract

From time to time, subject to the Act, we may subcontract the performance of our obligations under the AP Terms.

1.8 Matters beyond our reasonable control (known as Force Majeure Events)

If a Force Majeure Event occurs:

- (a) we may not be able to provide the Services, or we may need to alter how we provide the Services;
- (b) we will not be liable for any failure or delay in the performance of our obligations under the AP Terms that is related to the Force Majeure Event;
- (c) we will try to notify you promptly (via the AP Website and/or notices displayed in our Post Offices) of the event and how it affects our ability to provide the Services, and we will try to resume our obligations as soon as reasonably possible.

1.9 Governing Law

These AP Terms are governed by the Laws of Victoria, Australia.

SECTION 2: WHAT CANNOT BE SENT AND YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- Not all Items are suitable for sending through our delivery network. Some Items can pose health, safety, security, or environmental risks.
- You must check your Item is safe to send and you may be liable if you fail to do so. Each country has specific regulations restricting what Items can be sent to that country. It is your responsibility to check these regulations before you send an Item internationally.
- IMPORTANT: You may be liable to us and may be required to indemnify us if we suffer loss as a result of you doing the wrong thing (such as sending Prohibited Items or failing to deal with Restricted Items properly). See clauses 2.4 and 2.5. Please read these clauses carefully.

2.1 Prohibited Items and Restricted Items

- (a) You must not lodge a Prohibited Item.
- (b) You must not lodge a Restricted Item unless you have met our conditions of carriage for that Item.
- (c) More detailed information about what is prohibited and restricted is set out in the Prohibited & Restricted Items List on the AP Website:
<http://auspost.com.au/prohibited-restricted-items>. It is important that you read this document to understand your obligations.
- (d) You must check whether your Item is a Prohibited Item, or a Restricted Item and it is your responsibility to ensure that your Item is safe to lodge. Acceptance of an Item by us for sending does not free you of this responsibility. This means ensuring that, where it is required, you use the correct labelling and packaging, and provide the correct documentation and declarations. Where you are required to provide documentation, it must be complete and accurate. We provide some guidance on packaging requirements in the Prohibited & Restricted Items List.

2.2 International restrictions

- (a) You must not lodge an Item that is prohibited from export.
- (b) You must comply with any export restrictions on the Item you propose to send.
- (c) It is your responsibility to check for any international prohibitions or restrictions. We provide some guidance on this in our International Post Guide on the AP Website:
<https://auspost.com.au/sending/send-overseas/international-post-guide>. Restrictions and conditions can change at short notice. For the latest information, you should check the Universal Postal Union's prohibitions and restrictions list (<https://www.upu.int/UPU/media/upu/files/postalSolutions/programmesAndServices/postalSupplyChain/customs/prohibitedArticles/ListOfProhibitedArticles.pdf>) or contact the destination country's customs, postal, trade or government authority.
- (d) It's also your responsibility to check if the destination country imposes any duties, taxes, brokerage fees or any other fees on what you propose to send.

2.3 Our rights

- (a) If we find a Prohibited Item, it will not be delivered, and we will not refund postage costs.
- (b) We are not obliged to return Prohibited Items to you but may, at our discretion (acting reasonably) do the following:
 - (i) destroy the Item;
 - (ii) dispose of the Item;
 - (iii) deliver the item to the appropriate authorities (such as the police, defence force, Customs, emergency services).
- (c) If there is a cost associated with taking the above actions, we may pass this onto you.

2.4 Your liability to us and others

If you send a Prohibited Item, or a Restricted Item (where you have not met our specified conditions of carriage) then:

- (a) to the extent permitted by Law:
 - (i) we may not cover you for any loss of, or damage to, the Item;
 - (ii) we may hold you liable and you may be required to indemnify us for any loss or damage suffered by us as a result of you sending the Item (see clause 2.5 below).
- (b) you may be subject to penalties under the Civil Aviation Act 1988 (Cth) and other Laws.

2.5 Indemnity from you

- (a) It is important you understand that wrongful actions on your part may cause harm to us or others. If you breach your obligations under these AP Terms (an example of which is described in clause 2.4) and this results in a claim (by us or a third party) for Indemnifiable Loss, then to the extent permitted by Law, we require you to indemnify us against that claim.
- (b) Indemnifiable Loss means loss or damage (including Consequential Loss) incurred by us in connection with any of the following:
 - (i) an injury to or death of any person,
 - (ii) property damage,
 - (iii) a third-party claim against us, and
 - (iv) a claim that we or you have contravened any Laws.
- (c) Your liability to us under clause 2.5(a) is reduced proportionally to the extent that the Indemnifiable Loss was caused or contributed to by us.

SECTION 3: COVER FOR LOSS OR DAMAGE

- We commit to using reasonable care and skill when providing the Services.
- However, given the nature of postal services, sometimes Items may get delayed, damaged, or lost in transit. You may be entitled to compensation if your Item is lost or damaged.
- Subject to applicable Laws (including the Australian Consumer Law), the amount of any compensation payable will depend on the AP Terms, the loss you incurred and any contributing role you played.
- The description and value of items disclosed for Customs, consignment and/or Postage purposes must be accurate, and will be taken in account when assessing compensation.
- Our postal delivery services are generally suitable for sending Items up to $100 in value. For more information, see clause 3.6.
- IMPORTANT: Unless we have specifically agreed to different terms and conditions with you, this Section 3 covers how and when we may be liable to you. It also covers the situations under which our liability to you is limited. Please read it carefully.

3.1 Your rights under the Australian Consumer Law

It is important that you understand that any rights you may have, or obligations we may have to you, under the Australian Consumer Law apply in addition to the AP Terms (in particular clauses 3.3 to 3.8) but, are subject to the terms of the Act as outlined in clause 3.2.

3.2 Our rights under the section 34 of the Act – exclusion of liability regarding the letter service

Where our Service relates to the carriage of a Letter or an Item by means of the letter service supplied under section 27 of the Act, and where we have not provided the sender with a receipt for that Letter or Item, we will not be liable to you or any other person for any loss or damage connected to that Service including any loss of, or damage to, that Letter or Item.

3.3 General exclusions of liability except in certain circumstances

- (a) Generally, we will not be liable to you for any loss or damage (including any Consequential Loss) arising from our provision of (or failure to provide) the Services, but this is subject to:
 - (i) the Australian Consumer Law;
 - (ii) clause 3.3(b) and clauses 3.4 to 3.9.
- (b) We accept responsibility for:
 - (i) personal injury or death caused by our negligence;
 - (ii) loss or damage which is caused by our fraud, wilful misconduct, or gross negligence.

3.4 Delayed Items

Our delivery timetables are indicative targets only. Sometimes, Items may take longer to be delivered.

Apart from Items sent under the Express Post next business day delivery network, we do not provide a refund or compensation for delays. Further details are set out in the Express Post Service Schedule.

If an Item is unable to be found or located after a reasonable period for delivery has passed and after reasonable inquiries have been made by us, we may reasonably determine an Item to be lost and a claim for the lost Item may be made.

3.5 Lost or damaged Items

If your Item is lost or damaged in transit and if we are at fault for the loss or damage, we will pay you an amount that is:

- (a) equal to the cost of repair of the Item or the reduction in the value of the Item (where the Item cannot be repaired); or
- (b) equal to the replacement value of the Item; or
- (c) up to the Included Compensation limit available under the Service you obtained (see clause 3.6), and subject to any of the compensation dependencies (see clause 3.7), whichever of these options is the lesser, and we will also provide a refund of the Postage paid.

3.6 Compensation Limits (for Items lost or damaged in transit)

For certain Services, we provide a level of compensation if your Item is lost or damaged in transit using that Service, subject to the dependencies in clause 3.7. This is known as Included Compensation (and reflects the suitable value for Items sent using those Services). See the table below. Included Compensation is in addition to any rights you have under the Australian Consumer Law.

Service	Included Compensation
Domestic Parcel Post and Express Post	Up to $A100
International Economy Sea, International Economy Air (for Parcels only), International Standard, International Express, and International Courier	Up to $A100
Registered Post (Domestic)	Up to $A100
Domestic Letter with Tracking	Up to $A100
International Post Registered	Up to $A100
Extra Cover Service in addition to one of the above Services	The lower of the Extra Cover amount purchased and the value of the Item. For more detail see the Extra Cover Service Schedule.
Domestic Letters	Not applicable
International Economy Air (for Letters)	Not applicable

3.7 Included Compensation dependencies (for Items lost or damaged in transit)

Included Compensation is not available under clause 3.6 if:

- clause 3.2 applies;
- you lodge a Prohibited Item;
- you lodge a Restricted Item without complying with our specified conditions of carriage;
- the loss or damage is the result of a Force Majeure Event;
- the Item is confiscated or destroyed by Customs or any government authority;
- the Item was lost or damaged from the inspection or repacking of the Item by Customs or any government authority;
- the damage occurred before you lodged the Item or the loss or damage occurred after we delivered the Item;
- you cannot establish to our reasonable satisfaction that you lodged the Item with us;
- we can demonstrate that the loss or damage was not caused by us (for example, where you did not correctly address the Item);
- you have been fraudulent or dishonest in any way in respect of the Item or our investigation into a compensation claim;
- you did not comply with the AP Terms (including any relevant Service Schedule or Operational Guide); or
- you did not adequately pack the Item, or the Item could not be appropriately packaged.

3.8 Making a claim for Included Compensation

- The party who has a right to claim Included Compensation for loss or damage to an Item will be the sender (apart from a sender that has a separate business contract with us) or the addressee.
- We will not accept claims from both the sender and the addressee in relation to the same Item. The sender or addressee may waive their right to claim in favour of another person but must inform us of this in writing or in a form prescribed by us.

- (c) To make a claim follow the “How to apply” process set out on the AP Website:
<https://auspost.com.au/receiving/delayed-lost-or-damaged-items/compensation>.

The process may differ depending on the nature of the claim. You may also contact our National Contact Centre for more information on making a claim:

- In Australia: 13 POST (13 7678)
- From overseas: +61 3 8847 9045

- (d) We investigate each claim. You must comply with our claim investigation process which includes providing us with all relevant information or evidence and complying with any reasonable requests we make.
- (e) Claims for loss or damage must be made within:
- (i) 6 months from the date of lodgement of the Item; or
 - (ii) 30 days from the intended date of delivery in the case of Items which have been lodged under the International Courier Service or International Express Service.

service, you are entitled: (i) to cancel your service contract with us, and (ii) to a refund for the unused portion, or to compensation for its reduced value. You are also entitled to be compensated for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. If the failure does not amount to a major failure you are entitled to have problems with the service rectified in a reasonable time and, if this is not done, to cancel your contract and obtain a refund for the unused portion of the contract.

- (b) The guarantees in clause 3.10(a) do not apply to services acquired for an addressee’s business purpose.

3.9 Subsequent recovery of an Item

If we paid compensation for an Item which had been presumed lost, and that Item is subsequently found, we may notify the claimant. The claimant may reclaim this Item within 30 days from the date of our notification, provided the claimant repays our compensation amount.

3.10 Non-excludable guarantees

- (a) Subject to clauses 3.2 and 3.10(b) our services come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. For major failures with the

SECTION 4: DELIVERY & COLLECTION OF MAIL AND OTHER POSTAL SERVICES AND REQUIREMENTS

- When you send an Item, you must comply with our operational requirements and pay the relevant postage.
- This section covers those requirements and how we deal with delivery issues, such as mail in dispute, undeliverable Items etc. It also refers to some of our postal products and features associated with our various Services, such as tracking and signature on delivery.
- Under the Act we have the exclusive right to issue Postage Stamps within Australia and we may set conditions around the right to sell Postage Stamps.

4.1 Our addressing requirements

When sending an Item, you must supply a correct postal address and comply with our addressing guidelines which can be found on the AP Website:

<https://auspost.com.au/sending/guidelines/addressing-guidelines>. If you do not correctly address an Item, we may not be able to deliver it, or it might be delayed. Please note that similar addressing principles apply to the sending of domestic Parcels.

We may refuse to carry an Item if:

- it is marked in such a way that could delay or misdirect its delivery;
- before being lodged, the Postage Stamps attached to the Item have already been Postmarked;
- the name and address of the intended recipient is not legible;
- the type of covering of the Item could interfere with the processing of other Items or our equipment;
- the covering of the Item contains text or images which in our reasonable opinion, could be considered offensive or defamatory.

4.2 Mailbox delivery requirements

To help ensure your Items are delivered safely and properly, you must:

- Clearly display your street number, or flat or apartment number on your mailbox. For groups of mailboxes, the street number should be displayed clearly near the mailboxes and suite, or flat numbers should be displayed on each box below the mail slot, with mail boxes numbered sequentially.
- Provide us with safe and unobstructed access to your mailbox.
- Situate your mailbox in an appropriate location. See table below.

Type of premises	Appropriate mailbox location
Single residential or commercial premises	On the boundary of the property with the footpath or road with the mail slot facing the footpath or road. If the door of the building abuts the footpath, the mail slot may be in the door.
Single residential or business premises with driveway access to a road	At the junction of the driveway with the road.
Two adjoining residential or business premises with common driveway access to a road	Both mailboxes at a common point at the junction of the driveway with the road.
Premises with multiple delivery points	A single group of mailboxes on the boundary of the property with the footpath or public road. The mailboxes should be at right angles to the footpath or road and parallel to the driveway with the first box as close to the boundary as possible.

Type of premises	Appropriate mailbox location
Multi-storey residential or commercial buildings	Same as for premises with multiple delivery points. If the entrance to the building abuts the footpath or road, the single group of mailboxes may be in the foyer as close to the entrance as possible. We may require a mail room or a mail locker for our use.
Very large multi-storey residential or commercial buildings	A single group of mailboxes located at a convenient point with motor vehicle access in a service area or basement. We may require a mail room or a mail locker for our use.

- (d) Ensure that your mailbox meets our approved dimensions.
- Mailbox compartment: 250mm wide x 330mm deep x 160mm high.
 - Mail slot opening (if horizontal): 230mm wide x 30mm high and located at least 130mm above the internal base.
 - Mail slot opening (if vertical): 330mm high x 30mm wide and located at least 40mm above internal base.
 - The mailbox should be positioned so that the mail slot is between 900mm and 1200mm from the ground. Where there is a group of mailboxes, these should be positioned between 600mm and 1600mm from the ground.

4.3 Our methods and points of delivery

- (a) We deliver to various delivery points including residential, retail, and commercial premises. Our methods for delivering to these delivery points are set out in our Delivery Point Policy on the AP Website: https://auspost.com.au/content/dam/auspost_corp/media/documents/australia-post-delivery-policy.pdf.
- (b) Generally, delivery of your Item takes place when we deposit it in your mailbox, post office box, locked bag, community bag, private mail bag, parcel locker, or where we hand it to a person who has apparent authority to receive the Item or who is an apparently responsible person at the premises.
- (c) Counter mail delivery (also known as Post Restante): If you do not receive street or roadside mail delivery, or you are a visitor/tourist in the area for less than 6 months, you may arrange with us to receive counter mail delivery. To receive counter mail, you must satisfy us of your identity. If you authorise an agent to collect your counter mail, that person must produce satisfactory identification and evidence of the authorisation. See the AP Website for more detail about the requirements for counter mail delivery: <https://auspost.com.au/help-and-support/answers?s=poste+restante>.
- (d) Minors: If an addressee of an Item is under 18 years old, we may deliver that Item to a parent or guardian.
- (e) Safe drop: Where authorised or requested by either the sender or addressee, we may deliver a Parcel by placing it in a location at the delivery address that we believe is not in public view and not potentially exposed to the weather. If you have requested a safe drop location that we reasonably believe is unsuitable and we choose not to leave it in an alternate location, we will take it to a Post Office to be collected and will notify you in accordance with clause 4.3(f). We will not safe drop Parcels which contain alcohol. If the sender has elected to send a Parcel with safe drop, the addressee may be provided an option to opt-out and request a new delivery method. We will deliver according to the request if we receive it within a sufficient time prior to the delivery.

- (f) Unattended premises: If you are not home to sign for a Parcel or Registered Post Letter, or if there is no safe place for us to leave the Item, or we do not have permission to do so under clause 4.3(e), we will take it to a Post Office to be collected and will notify you by appropriate means (including by card, email, SMS or other digital means). You will have 10 business days to collect it before the Item is returned to the sender. When you collect the Item from the Post Office, we will ask for identification that proves you are either the addressee or someone who is authorised to collect the Item on the addressee's behalf.

4.4 Payment of Postage

- (a) Generally, Postage on an Item must be paid for by the sender. There are other instances where Postage may be paid by an addressee, such as where an Item is carried under the Domestic and International Reply Paid Letters Services, the Domestic Return Paid Parcels Service, or the Key Return Service.
- (b) Postage on an Item may be covered in various ways including:
- (i) Attaching uncancelled Postage Stamps to the Item.
 - (ii) For Items to be delivered overseas, Postage Stamps bearing the words "International Post" should be attached. Otherwise, Postage Stamps equivalent to 110% of the Postage payable on the Item must be attached (to reflect that GST is included in the cost of domestic Postage).
 - (iii) For Items carried by the Express Post Service, attaching an individually numbered barcode label to the Item.
 - (iv) Attaching an online Postage label, obtained using your MyPost Account.
 - (v) Attaching a Postage Meter impression indicating that Postage has been paid to the Item.
 - (vi) Using an authorised Postage paid imprint.
 - (vii) Using one of our packaging products that has Postage included in the price of that product, such as our Postage prepaid envelopes and satchels. (See clause 4.14 for more details).

4.5 Philatelic Services

- (a) You must not sell Postage Stamps issued in Australia by us unless:
- (i) authorised by us; or
 - (ii) you are selling, exchanging, or trading such Postage Stamps for philatelic purposes.
- (b) You must not sell any of our packaging products that have Postage included in the price of that product (such as our Postage prepaid envelopes and satchels), unless authorised by us.
- (c) We may limit the quantity of Postage Stamps of a particular design or issue that may be purchased.
- (d) We may set a time limit for the sale of Postage Stamps of a particular design or issue.
- (e) We may sell philatelic materials issued by overseas postal administrations and may also arrange for our philatelic materials to be sold by overseas postal administrations and agents.
- (f) Where we sell Postage Stamps from our philatelic sections, which are specially packed or attached to envelopes or other wrappings, we may charge a fee for the pack or wrapping in addition to the face value of the Postage Stamp.
- (g) If you buy a Postage Stamp from our philatelic section for a value equal to or greater than the Postage payable on a small regular Letter, we will not charge you for any Postmarking (if requested) of that Postage Stamp. Where a Postage Stamp has been Postmarked under this clause, that Postage Stamp is not valid for the payment of Postage.

- (h) You may request that we attach a Postage Stamp that has been purchased from a philatelic section to an Item provided by you. We charge a fee for this which is set out in the Post Charges Guide.
- (i) We may mark certain Postage Stamps with the word “specimen” and sell such Postage Stamps at our philatelic sections. These Postage Stamps are not valid for the payment of Postage.
- (j) We may sell a limited number of Postage Stamps to eligible government concession card holders at a concession rate. These concession Postage Stamps can be used only for Letter Services within Australia and on such terms and conditions published by us. For more information about eligibility criteria and how concession Postage Stamps may be used see the AP Website: <https://auspost.com.au/sending/stamps/concession-stamps>.

4.6 Undeliverable Items

- (a) There may be several reasons why we are unable to deliver Items. These include situations where:
 - (i) the Item is not addressed or is inadequately or incorrectly addressed;
 - (ii) we are informed or aware that the addressee is unknown or does not receive Items at the address listed on the Item;
 - (iii) in our reasonable opinion, there are no adequate receptacles or facilities for us to deposit the Item;
 - (iv) in the case of an Item lodged for delivery overseas, the required documentation such as Customs documents are not provided;
 - (v) an addressee has refused to accept delivery of an Item. This may occur where an addressee returns the Item to us with an indication that the addressee has declined to accept delivery;
 - (vi) an Item has been addressed for Counter Mail delivery at one of our Post Offices or to an addressee at another location (such as a hotel) and the Item has not been claimed by the addressee within 30 days from the date of delivery.

- (b) If an undeliverable Item has a return address, we will deliver the Item to that address.
- (c) If an undeliverable Item has no return address, we may, under the APC Act open it to find the correct address of the intended recipient or the sender’s address, and then subsequently deliver, or return the Item.
- (d) If we cannot deliver an Item or return it to the sender, we may dispose of that Item in any of the following ways:
 - (i) By complying with a court order.
 - (ii) If the carriage of the Item is prohibited, or could be in breach of Law, we may provide the Item to such authority or agency or body (such as the police, customs, quarantine, relevant prosecuting authority, defence, or emergency services, etc) as required by Law or as we reasonably consider to be appropriate.
 - (iii) If clauses 4.6(d)(i) or 4.6(d)(ii), do not apply, we may sell, destroy, or dispose of the Item as we consider appropriate. If we sell the Item, the sale proceeds, will be paid to: (i) our Unclaimed Money Fund, (ii) a charity or charitable fund of our choice (including any charitable fund we may establish), or (iii) such projects and programs established or operated by us (or a related body corporate of ours) for a public benefit.

4.7 Underpaid Items

- (a) If an Item does not have sufficient, or any, Postage for delivery, we are not required to deliver it. We have the discretion to deliver the Item, return the Item to the sender (if one can be identified without opening the Item) or deal with the Item under clause 4.6(d).
- (b) If we choose to deliver the underpaid Item, we may charge an underpaid Item administrative fee (as set out in the Post Charges Guide) in addition to the deficient Postage.

- (c) If we cannot identify the sender of the underpaid Item without opening the Item, we may hold the Item and notify the addressee that deficient postage plus an underpaid Item administrative fee (as set out in the Post Charges Guide) is payable before we deliver the Item. If the addressee does not pay these costs within 7 days, we may deal with the Item under clause 4.6(d).

4.8 Counterfeit Products and consistent lodgement of underpaid Items

If we detect that a Counterfeit Product has been used to post the Item (or if we determine that the sender consistently lodges underpaid Items), we may:

- (a) refuse to carry the Item; or
- (b) hold the Item and notify either the sender or the addressee that proper postage plus an underpaid Item administrative fee (as set out in the Post Charges Guide) is payable before we deliver the Item. If these costs are not paid within 7 days, we may deal with the Item under clause 4.6(d)

You must not sell Counterfeit Products.

4.9 Items in dispute and Items withdrawn

- (a) If there is a dispute between persons about who is entitled to receive an Item, we may investigate to determine the proper addressee. If we are unable to determine the proper addressee of the Item, we may mark the Item as 'in dispute' and treat it as being undeliverable.
- (b) A person who has lodged an Item (other than an Express Post Item) may apply to us for the Item to be withdrawn from delivery and returned to the sender. The application must include: (i) a lodgement receipt (where applicable), (ii) a description of the Item and its contents, (iii) the applicant's reasons for withdrawal. The applicant must pay the Withdrawal from post fee and the additional charges set out in the Post Charges Guide. The fee and additional charges will not be refunded where the Item is delivered before it can be withdrawn. We will only withdraw the Item if we are satisfied: (i) that the applicant is the sender and, (ii) with the reasons for withdrawal or that the addressee has consented to the withdrawal.

4.10 Overweight or irregular sized Items

We may refuse to carry an Item if it exceeds our size and weight guidelines published on the AP Website:

<https://auspost.com.au/sending/guidelines/size-weight-guidelines>.

4.11 Redirection and hold Services

- (a) Prior to delivery: If you wish us to temporarily hold or to redirect the Item to a different address prior to delivery, we offer Mail Redirection and Mail Holding Services that enable this.
- (b) After delivery: Where we have already delivered an Item and the addressee no longer resides at the address stated on the Item, the recipient of the Item may:
 - (i) Redirect it to the addressee by changing the address and re-lodging the Item. We may charge Postage on this redirection if it appears that the Item has been opened before being redirected. If the Item was originally sent by Registered Post, then any redirection of that Item must also use the Registered Post Service.
 - (ii) Indicate on the Item that the addressee is unknown or has left the address and return the Item to us. We may then treat it as being undeliverable under clause 4.6.
- (c) We will not redirect an Item where we have received specific instructions not to redirect that Item.

4.12 Customs requirements and holding costs on international Items received

- (a) When sending an Item to an international location, you are responsible for complying with Customs requirements, including completing all Customs documentation and checking whether Customs duties or other charges are payable on the Item. For the purpose of this clause, Australia's External Territories may not be considered an international location.

- (b) Customs duties, taxes and other regulatory charges must be paid by the person receiving the Item. If the receiver does not pay these charges, the Item may be treated as undeliverable.
- (c) We may also charge reasonable holding costs for any Item weighing more than 500 grams, sent from overseas which:
 - (i) attracts Customs duties or is imported for a commercial purpose and stored at a gateway mail facility; and
 - (ii) remains undelivered at the place at which it was assessed for duty, for 4 days or more (excluding weekends and public holidays), after we have taken reasonable steps to notify the addressee of its arrival.

Delivery of the Item may be withheld until the holding costs are paid.

4.13 Remail

- (a) If you engage in the practice of remailing, to exploit differences between domestic Postage rates and Terminal Dues rates we may take action against you under the Universal Postal Convention.
- (b) Subject to clause 4.13(c), if you are an Australian resident (or an Australian body corporate) you must not post either directly or through an agent in an overseas country for delivery to Australia, more than 300 Items in any 30-day period (Bulk Overseas Posting). If you breach this requirement, we may: (i) request that you pay us an amount equal to the Postage that would have been payable if the Items were posted at the place they were received in Australia (Equivalent Australian Postage), or (ii) dispose of the Items by returning them to the country of posting or destroying them.
- (c) We may permit you to make a Bulk Overseas Posting if you notify us beforehand of the number and type of Items, date, and place of lodgement, and pay us the Equivalent Australian Postage.

- (d) Unless you are a resident of an overseas country, you may not post either directly or through an agent in that country for delivery to Australia a Bulk Overseas Posting. If you do so, we may: (i) return the Items by surface mail to the country of posting, (ii) destroy the Items, or (iii) choose to deliver the Items if you pay us the Equivalent Australian Postage.

4.14 Our packaging and flat rate postage

- (a) We sell various types packaging for use with our delivery services including envelopes, padded bags, satchels, boxes, and tubes.
- (b) Some forms of our packaging may have prepaid postage included in the price. This will be indicated on the packaging itself.
- (c) We offer flat rates of postage for Parcels that weigh up to 5kg that are sent within Australia.
 - Where you use our designated packaging, these flat rates are based on the size of that packaging (i.e. small, medium, large or extra-large).
 - Where you use your own packaging, these flat rates are based on the weight tier that applies to your Parcel. Your Parcel's weight will be assessed as the greater of its cubic or actual weight as measured and calculated by us. To find out more about how to calculate cubic weight, please see the AP Website:
<https://auspost.com.au/business/business-ideas/ecommerce-jargon-busters/what-is-cubic-weight>.
- (d) Items lodged using our flat rate packaging must fit within the packaging, be fully enclosed, and must not be packed so tightly that they bulge or cause the packaging to split.
- (e) You must not use our Parcel Post and Express Post pre-paid and postage-not-paid satchels for Items which exceed 5kgs.

- (f) Items lodged using our packaging which exceed 5kgs will be charged at the rates set out in the Post Charges Guide.
- (g) Where our satchels and packaging are designed for a specific Service such as the Express Post Service or the Parcel Post Service, these must only be used for that designated Service.
- (h) Some types of our flat rate packaging may be reused, provided:
 - they are not satchels or envelopes;
 - they meet our packaging requirements; and
 - any previously used labels and barcodes are removed or covered.

4.15 Tracking feature

- (a) We offer a tracking feature that allows a person to track the delivery status of some Items via the AP Website or the Australia Post App, and provides for email, SMS, or in-App notification of tracking events. These are standard features for some of our Services and optional in some others (for a fee).
- (b) For tracking to be provided, the sender must obtain the consent of an addressee, or other third party in relation to their email address and/or mobile number being provided to us for the purposes of notifying tracking events (and collecting feedback on the delivery or tracking service).
- (c) We will only use the email address and mobile number provided by a sender for the purpose of notifying tracking events, obtaining feedback on the delivery or tracking services or any purpose permitted under the Privacy Act.
- (d) Tracking and notifications may be affected by various factors including technical problems and telecommunication network coverage. We cannot guarantee that the information provide through the tracking feature will always be accurate or up to date.
- (e) Tracking services in relation to outbound international deliveries are subject to the availability and provision of those services by international postal organisations and other third parties. Tracking may not be available in some locations, or available at all times. Please check the International Post Guide for more information.

4.16 Delivery Confirmation feature – Domestic Registered Post Service only

- (a) This is a feature offered with our domestic Registered Post service where a delivery confirmation card accompanies an Item being sent. We use reasonable endeavours to ensure the card is signed on delivery of the Item and then sent back to the sender via ordinary post as confirmation of delivery.
- (b) We are not required to verify the identity of the person providing their signature.
- (c) If a person appears to have authority to sign for an Item, we will rely on that authority where we consider it reasonable to do so.
- (d) If the premises are unattended or a signature cannot be obtained, we will take the Item to a local Post Office and notify you of this.

4.17 Signature on Delivery feature

- (a) We offer a Signature on Delivery feature under which we use reasonable endeavours to obtain a signature from the recipient of an Item on delivery. This is a standard feature in some of our Services and optional in some others (for a fee).
- (b) Under this feature, we are not required to verify the identity of the person providing their signature.
- (c) If a person appears to have authority to sign for an article, we will rely on that authority where we consider it reasonable to do so.
- (d) Unless you instruct otherwise, we don't need to obtain a signature if: (i) the addressee has requested that an Item be left in a nominated place where nobody is available to sign, or (ii) we are able to deliver an Item in accordance with our 'Safe Drop' terms in clause 4.3(e). In either case the date and time scan data obtained by us on our devices will be deemed to meet any Signature on Delivery request.

- (e) Where an Item is delivered to one of our Parcel lockers, the inputting of a secure code to access the locker is deemed to meet any Signature on Delivery request.
- (f) Unless you instruct otherwise, we don't need to obtain a signature where an Item has been addressed to a person's Post Office box, locked bag, private bag, community bag or common bag or where we have come to a specific arrangement with you. The date, time, box number scan data obtained by us on our devices is deemed to meet any Signature on Delivery request.
- (g) For domestic deliveries, if the recipient's premises are unattended or a signature cannot be obtained, and where clauses 4.17(d) and (f) don't apply, we will take the Item to a Collection Point and will notify you of this.
- (h) For international deliveries, if the recipient's premises are unattended or a signature cannot be obtained, the Item will be dealt with in accordance with procedures determined by the postal operator of that country.
- (i) Signature on Delivery is not available in all countries. Please check the International Post Guide for more information. Where an Item with a Signature on Delivery feature is sent to a destination which does not accommodate this feature, you acknowledge and accept that the Item may be delivered without a signature being obtained.

4.18 Person to person delivery feature – Domestic Registered Post Service only

- (a) This is a feature offered with our domestic Registered Post service where we use reasonable endeavours to deliver a domestic Registered Post Item to the person named as the addressee.
- (b) We may deliver the Item to an addressee's nominee if the addressee has requested and authorised this and we have approved that request. Where the addressee is a minor, the addressee's parent or guardian will be the nominee.

- (c) If the addressee cannot be located or we cannot deliver to the addressee, we will take the Item to the local Post Office and will notify you of this.

4.19 Greeting cards

Greeting cards may be sent at concessional rates set out in our Post Charges Guide, if they: (i) meet the size and weight requires set out in the Post Charges Guide, (ii) are enclosed in an envelope which is marked "Card Only" and, (iii) are lodged during the period (if any) specified in the Post Charges Guide.

4.20 International Reply Coupons

International Reply Coupons are a means of paying for Postage. They can be exchanged by the addressee for a Postage Stamp to prepay airmail Postage on a small Letter up to 50g. Where more than 100 International Reply Coupons are presented to us at any one time in exchange for Postage Stamps, we may require the person presenting the coupons to affix the Postage Stamps to the Items and lodge the Items at that time.

4.21 Aerogrammes

You must not lodge an aerogramme unless it has been supplied and/or approved by us.

Other terms and conditions	This Service Schedule should be read in conjunction with Section 3 of the Head Terms which sets out our liability to you for lost and damaged Items, and our obligations to pay

Included Compensation to you, including Extra Cover. In particular you should read clause 3.7 of the Head Terms which sets out the compensation dependencies.

Service Exclusions

We are not liable for any amount exceeding the Limit in respect of an Item.

We are not liable for any amount claimed under the Service:

- (a) if our liability is limited or excluded under clauses 3.2 to 3.8 of the Head Terms;
- (b) if there is no proof of lodgement (for example, a Postage or lodgement receipt or the tracking sticker found on certain prepaid satchels and envelopes); or
- (c) if we have not caused or contributed to the loss or damage of the Item.

To the extent permitted by Law, if you can recover loss under an insurance policy or otherwise, the amount payable under this Service will be reduced by the amount recovered. You may not recover more than the amount of your direct loss.

Availability

The Service is only available for tracked and/or signature Services and to certain countries. Cover restrictions vary depending on country and the type of Item. For more information refer to the Features and Extras page on the AP Website:

<https://auspost.com.au/sending/send-overseas/features-extras-international>, and the International Post Guide on the AP Website:

<https://auspost.com.au/business/shipping/check-sending-guidelines/international-post-guide>.

This Service is not available for bullion.

We may set a lower maximum cover Limit for some Services.

Subsequent recovery of an Item

Clause 3.9 of the Head Terms applies to lost Items subsequently recovered.

Not an insurance contract

These terms and conditions do not constitute a contract of insurance.

Release and indemnity

To the extent permitted by the Australian Consumer Law, on payment of Included Compensation by us under this Service, the Claimant releases us from any further claim in relation to the Item (however arising) and indemnifies us against any claim by the addressee or the sender (whichever is not the Claimant), including any costs incurred by us defending the claim.

Definitions

In this Service Schedule, the following definitions apply:

Claimant means the person entitled to claim under the Service as follows. If the Item in relation to which the Service applies:

- (a) has been delivered, only the addressee may claim;
 - (b) has not been delivered, only the sender may claim;
- (provided however, that either may irrevocably assign in writing the right to claim to the other), or
- (c) is an "International Courier Service" Item, only the sender may claim, regardless of whether the Item has been delivered.

Valuable Document includes but is not limited to passports, certificates of title, academic records, birth certificates and wills.

Other terms and conditions

Once you are approved to use this Service, the Service will operate until you cancel it or we cease providing it on the terms below. We may refuse to carry a Reply Paid Letter if you fail to comply with the AP Terms.

Cancellation by you

You may cancel this Service by giving us 30 days' notice in writing.

For 2 months from the cancellation date, we may continue to deliver any Reply Paid Letters sent by third parties and charge you for those Reply Paid Letters. If a third party sends a Reply Paid Letter more than 2 months after you cancel the Service, we may treat that Item as underpaid and require you to pay the deficient Postage plus an underpaid Item administrative fee (in the Post Charges Guide). If you do not pay these costs within 7 days of us notifying you, we may treat that Item as undeliverable.

Cancellation by us

We may cease providing this Service (and will notify you if we do so):

- (a) if you breach the AP Terms in a way that cannot be remedied;
- (b) if you fail to remedy any breach of the AP Terms as required by us within 7 days' after being notified in writing of the breach;
- (c) if you suffer an Insolvency Event; or
- (d) at our discretion and acting reasonably, and without cause, by giving you 30 days' notice in writing.

After cancellation

You are not entitled to a refund of your Annual Service fee if the Service has ceased or been cancelled (unless it is cancelled by us without cause under (d) (above), in which case we will refund the Annual Fee on a pro rata basis).

Once the Service has ceased or been cancelled, you must not publish the Reply Paid address or issue any pre-printed Reply Paid envelopes or postcards.

Address Update Service

In this Service Schedule an “Organisation” includes businesses, not-for-profit organisations, government departments or agencies which have, prior to an application for this Service, a name and address for the Addressee.

If the Addressee consents, we may provide the Addressee’s personal information (given in the application form) to that Organisation. This is a way to provide your new address to selected banks, insurers, energy providers and telcos.

Termination, Amendment or Extension by Addressee

You may alter or cancel the Service by completing an Alteration or Cancellation Form on the AP Website:

https://auspost.com.au/content/dam/auspost_corp/media/documents/mail_alter_cancel_form.pdf.

You must lodge the form at a Post Office and provide valid identification.

If you are unable to lodge the form personally, someone may lodge the form on your behalf. That person must provide identification and a written authorisation from you (the original applicant) including: (i) date, (ii) the customer reference number from the original application, (iii) the reason for the authorisation, (iv) the name and signature of the proxy and (v) your name and signature.

You may also be able to extend the Service over the phone, at a Post Office or online. Please see the AP Website for more details: <https://auspost.com.au/receiving/manage-your-mail/redirect-hold-mail/extend-your-mail-redirect>.

We will endeavour to ensure the cancellation or extension is done within a reasonable time. We may make any further enquiries or request further evidence if in our reasonable opinion, this is necessary.

Suspension or termination by Australia Post

We may suspend or terminate the Service (and will notify you if we do so):

- (a) if you breach the AP Terms in a way that cannot be remedied;
- (b) if you fail to remedy any breach of the AP Terms as required by us within 7 days after being notified in writing of the breach;
- (c) if you suffer an Insolvency Event;
- (d) at our discretion and acting reasonably, and without cause, by giving you 14 days’ notice in writing; or
- (e) if we believe on reasonable grounds that the Service is being used for or in connection with an unlawful activity or that you were not authorised to make the application.

Refund of Service fee

If the Service is cancelled prior to any period for which payment is made, you may be entitled to a refund of the unexpired portion of the Service fee. The calculation of the refund (if any) is published on the AP Website <https://auspost.com.au/receiving/manage-your-mail/redirect-hold-mail/change-or-cancel-your-mail-hold-or-redirect#refunds> (and can also be located by searching for “Mail Redirect refund”). - the envelope appears to have been opened and resealed.

Lodgement receipt

We will provide you a lodgement receipt if you lodge the Letter over the counter or use a self-service terminal within a Post Office.

This proof of lodgement is necessary to claim Included Compensation for a lost or damaged Registered Post Letter.

Please note: a lodgement receipt is not available if you simply lodge your Letter in a street posting box without using the lodgement function at a self-service terminal within a Post Office.

Delivery signature

We will obtain a signature from the person to whom the Letter is delivered. This may not necessarily be the addressee of the Letter.

We will not obtain a signature if your Letter happens to be lodged with a Registered Post label but is carried by the Express Post Service, a Reply Paid Service, the Unaddressed Mail Service or any Service that requires your letter to be presorted.

Additional features

There are additional features to the Service which you can purchase for a fee. The conditions of these features are in clauses 4.16 and 4.188 of section 4 of the Head Terms.

- Person-to-person: To ensure your Registered Post letter is delivered only to the addressee, you can purchase a 'person-to-person' label to attach to your envelope. This means we will request identification on delivery and only hand over the Letter to the addressee, except if:
 - the addressee is a minor (in which case, the letter will be delivered to a parent or guardian);
 - the addressee has given us prior written authority to deliver to a nominated person; or
 - it is impractical or unsafe for us to deliver to the addressee (e.g. if we are unable to access the property).
- Delivery confirmation: To receive delivery confirmation you can purchase this additional feature and we will return a card to you with the recipient's signature.

Included Compensation

This Service provides Included Compensation of up to $100 for any loss or damage to your Letter, in addition to a refund of your Postage.

Payment of compensation is subject to the conditions in section 3 of the Head Terms, especially the compensation dependencies in clause 3.7.

To be eligible for Included Compensation, you must comply with the requirements of this Service Schedule and the Head Terms.

To make a claim you must follow the claims process in clause 3.8 of the Head Terms.
You must also provide us with your lodgement receipt.

Additional cover of up to $5,000 is available under the Extra Cover Service.

Service requirements	Definitions Under this Service Schedule: Approved Impression means an impression, indicium, mark or other token made by Postage Meter that is approved by us. Authorised Supplier means a person who has entered into an agreement with us to supply or service Postage Meters. A list of authorised suppliers is in the Operational Guides. Licence Controlling Office means the Post Office specified in your Postage Meter Licence or one nominated by us. This will usually be within a 50 km radius of the premises at which your Postage Meter is licensed to be kept. Postage Meter Standards means the minimum set of requirements developed by us, as published in the Operational Guide (Postage Meters Conditions of Use). Remote Reset Centre means a location approved by us to set or reset postage credits by any methods approved by us. Compliance with Guides You must comply with all the requirements and conditions in the Operational Guides. Obtaining a Postage Meter You may purchase or lease a Postage Meter from an Authorised Supplier. Application for licence

Before you use a Postage Meter, you must apply for a Postage Meter Licence. The application form is available on the AP Website:
https://auspost.com.au/content/dam/auspost_corp/media/documents/postage-meter-application-form.pdf.

If you have obtained a Postage Meter from somewhere other than an Authorised Supplier, you must have the Postage Meter inspected by an Authorised Supplier within 7 days of your application.

We may refuse or revoke your application if:

- (a) you do not provide all information requested by us;
- (b) your Postage Meter has not been approved by us;
- (c) we or an Authorised Supplier reasonably believe that the operation and/or security of your Postage Meter is unsatisfactory;
- (d) your Postage Meter does not meet our Postage Meter Standards.

If we accept your application, the term of the Licence commences from the date in your application form.

Licence Conditions

Your Postage Meter Licence is not transferrable.

You must:

- (a) not make any representations about your Postage Meter meeting our licensing requirements or whether we will licence that machine to another person;
- (b) keep your Postage Meter safe and secure and must notify our Licence Controlling Office in writing of any proposed change to the premises at which your Postage Meter is kept;
- (c) notify our Licence Controlling Office in writing of any proposed sale, disposal or change of ownership of your Postage Meter;
- (d) ensure that your Postage Meter is in good working order and must not use it if any components are operating incorrectly;
- (e) immediately notify our Licence Controlling Office, and if applicable, the Authorised Supplier, of any defect with your Postage Meter;
- (f) reset your Postage Meter in accordance with instructions provided by an Authorised Supplier and approved by us;
- (g) not tamper with any seal, lock or device placed in or on your Postage Meter;
- (h) not allow any other person other than an Authorised Supplier or us to service your Postage Meter;
- (i) not use any ink that is not of a specification approved by us;
- (j) not dispose of your Postage Meter, without first allowing our Licence Controlling Office, or an Authorised Supplier to remove the printing mechanism within the Postage Meter;
- (k) connect your Postage Meter to a Remote Reset Centre, once every 3 months (or as we otherwise direct), using the method prescribed by us; or
- (l) arrange for us or an Authorised Supplier to inspect your Postage Meter at least once every 3 months.

If we reasonably believe that:

- (a) your Postage Meter is being used for a fraudulent or unlawful activity;
- (b) your Postage Meter no longer meets our prescribed Postage Meter Standards;
- (c) the general operation and security of your Postage Meter is unsatisfactory;

	then, we may (or we may instruct an Authorised Supplier to): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) take action to prevent resetting of your Postage Meter; or (b) enter your premises to inspect, disable and take possession of, the vault mechanism and/or printing mechanism of your Postage Meter. We will give you reasonable notice (at least 30 days) before undertaking any of these actions, unless we reasonably believe that your Postage Meter is being used for a fraudulent or unlawful activity. Failure to accurately record postage You will be liable to us for any loss in postage fees that we suffer because of a failure by your Postage Meter to accurately record the value of Approved Impressions, if you caused or contributed to such failure. Refunds in relation to Approved Impressions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) If you suffer a loss as a direct result of your Postage Meter failing to accurately record the value of an Approved Impression and such failure was not caused or contributed to by you, we may refund you an amount equal to that loss. (b) Where a Postage Meter impression is defective or made in error, you may apply to us in writing for a refund. Your application must be made within 6 months from the date the impression was made. If we are satisfied that, (i) the value of the impression was accurately recorded by your Postage Meter as a result of printing the Approved Impression and (ii) there was no misconduct, fraud or tampering involved, and you provide us with the complete envelope, container or wrapper that bears the impression, then we may pay an amount equal to the value of the impression sought to be refunded. Where the value of an impression for which a refund is sought under this clause, is unclear or illegible, the value of that impression is deemed to be the lowest value of impression which the Postage Meter can make. (c) We will not refund the value of any impression which has been: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) produced by improper or fraudulent means; (ii) tampered with; (iii) produced by in breach of the AP Terms or not under a Postage Meter Licence; or (iv) removed or separate from its original envelope, container or wrapper. (d) We may also refuse to refund the value of any impression for which payment has not been received as cleared funds by us.
Lodgement requirements	You must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) prepare and lodge your Items in accordance with the requirements (and in the quantity limits) in the Operational Guides; (b) ensure that all lodged Items with impressions bear the sender's address; (c) ensure that where an Approved Impression on an Item contains a date, that the Item is lodged only on that date; and (d) ensure that you do not lodge any Items that bear an impression containing a message which we reasonably consider to be misleading, confusing, offensive, undesirable or objectionable. We may also refuse to carry such Items. We may refuse to carry or may treat as underpaid an Item which has an impression that has been incorrectly positioned on the Item and/or which does not comply with our prescribed conditions for positioning of Approved Impressions.
Other terms and conditions	Cancelling a Postage Meter Licence You may cancel your Postage Meter Licence by giving us 7 days' notice in writing.

We may cancel your Postage Meter Licence (and will notify you if we do so):

- (a) if you breach the AP Terms in a way that cannot be remedied;
- (b) if you fail to remedy any breach of the AP Terms as required by us within 7 days' after being notified in writing of the breach;
- (c) if you suffer an Insolvency Event;
- (d) if you fail to remedy defect with your Postage Meter as and when we require you to do so;
- (e) if you engage in unlawful activity in relation to your Postage Meter;
- (f) if your Postage Meter fails to meet the Postage Meter Standards;
- (g) if your Postage Meter is lost, stolen or irreparably damaged; or
- (h) without cause and acting reasonably, by giving you 30 days' notice in writing.

Upon the cancellation of the licence, if the Postage Meter is in good working order and has not been tampered with, you may be entitled to a pro-rated refund of any unused credit (that constitutes cleared funds by us) on the Postage Meter, unless we have cancelled the licence due to a failure to comply on your part or an Insolvency Event.

Supply and service of Postage Meters

No person other than us or an Authorised Supplier may supply or service a Postage Meter.

De-licensing

If you upgrade or obtain a new Postage Meter, you must de-license and dispose of your old Postage Meter in accordance with the process in the Operational Guides.

Rebates

You are entitled to a rebate on the postage credit downloaded to your Postage Meter when you reset the Postage Meter. The amount of the rebate is in the Post Charges Guide.

Our Property

All PO Boxes, Common Boxes and Red Door Boxes are our property which we licence you to use. All PO Box and Common Box keys are our property and must not be copied. Any key cutting must be arranged by us. All box keys must be immediately returned to us when the Service ceases.

Notification Features

You may deactivate the Mail2Day or Collection Notification features by notifying us in writing:

- in person at the Post Office where your PO Box is located;
- online through your MyPost Account; or
- via such other means as prescribed by us from time to time.

We may deactivate the Mail2Day or Collection Notification features:

- at our discretion acting reasonably and by giving you reasonable notice in writing (being not less than 7 days); or
- immediately for security or operational reasons or if we reasonably suspect that the PO Box or Common Box is used for unlawful purposes.

Mail Delivery

If your Items are addressed to a street address, we will deliver them as addressed, unless:

- a mail redirection is in place; or
- we determine that it is appropriate in the interests of network management to deliver your street addressed Items to your PO Box.

No fee applies to the redirection of Items from a street address to a PO Box for a period of 6 months after we approve the mail redirection application.

PO Box Plus Service conditions

- (a) This Service is available at participating Post Offices.
- (b) You cannot use the Service for Items:
 - (i) which the third-party carrier requires photographic identification or the personal signature of the addressee;
 - (ii) that are not presented by third-party carriers over the counter to us at the relevant Post Office;
 - (iii) that exceed our published weight and/or size limits; or
 - (iv) that are a Prohibited Item or that would otherwise not be accepted for carriage by us (collectively, Non-Permitted PO Box Plus Items).
- (c) We may refuse to accept from third-party carriers, any Non-Permitted Box Items and/or any Items that we reasonably consider to be damaged.
- (d) If an Item that is addressed to you via the PO Box Plus Service cannot be placed in your PO Box, we will notify you by placing a notification card in your PO Box. We may also use other means to contact you to collect that Item. If that Item remains uncollected for 30 days from the time that we notify you, we may dispose of or destroy that Item.
- (e) Any signature or acknowledgement provided by our representatives to a third-party carrier on receipt of a PO Box Plus Item at a Post Office is only an acknowledgement of receipt of that Item. It does not create any agency relationship between you and us.

	(f) You can receive up to 50 Items from third-party carriers within each PO Box billing year under this service. If you exceed that limit, we may charge you an excess Item collection fee (as published in the Post Charges Guide). Note that if a single delivery by a third-party carrier comprises more than 1 Item, each Item will count towards your limit. (g) If we do not accept an Item from a third-party carrier and that carrier provides us with an ‘attempted delivery’ card or similar notification, we will put this card in your PO Box. It is your responsibility to make alternate collection or delivery arrangements for these Items with the sender or the third-party carrier. (h) We are not responsible or liable for any Items or ‘attempted delivery’ cards that are not properly lodged over the counter of the Post Office by a third-party carrier (eg. If the third-party carrier simply leaves an Item outside the Post Office or outside our regular operating hours). (i) We may, acting reasonably, cease the PO Box Plus Service at any time, by giving you at least 30 days’ notice in writing. You may be entitled to a pro-rated refund of any unused Service fee upon the cessation of the Service unless we have ceased the Service due to a failure to comply on your part or an Insolvency Event. Red Door Box service conditions If we place your Item into a Red Door Box, we will place a key or key card, into your PO Box, that allows you to access the Red Door Box. After you access the Red Door Box, you must return the key, key card or secure code in the manner instructed by us. If you lose the key, key card, or secure code, you may be required to reimburse us for replacement costs. Signature on Delivery Items Unless you advise us in writing otherwise, we may deliver to your PO Box any Items which would ordinarily require a signature on delivery, without obtaining a signature. Instead, the date, time, and PO Box number scan data that we capture will be deemed to have met the signature on delivery requirements for those Items.
Lodgement requirements	Not applicable.
Other terms and conditions	Ceasing the Services You may cancel any of the Services in this Service Schedule by giving us 7 days’ notice in writing. We may cease providing any of the Services in this Service Schedule (and will notify you if we do so): (a) if you breach the AP Terms in a way that cannot be remedied; (b) if you fail to remedy any breach of the AP Terms as required by us within 7 days’ after being notified in writing of the breach; (c) if you suffer an Insolvency Event; (d) if we reasonably believe that the Services are being used for an unlawful or improper purpose; or (e) at our discretion and acting reasonably, and without cause, by giving you 30 days’ notice in writing. You may be entitled to a pro-rated refund of any unused Service fee upon the cessation of the Service (less any cancellation fee for the Service set out in the Post Charges Guide) unless we ceased the Service due to a failure to comply on your part or an Insolvency Event. If the Services have ceased, all Items addressed to you at the nominated PO Box or Common Box will be treated as undeliverable (unless you have applied for a change of address service).

Cash may not be available

We are not required to make special arrangements for cash to be available at a Post Office in order to pay an issued Money Order. If in our reasonable opinion, the payment of the Money Order would cause a Post Office to be left with insufficient cash on hand for its usual operational requirements we may:

- defer payment of that Standard Money Order until the Post Office receives sufficient cash to enable payment;
- require the payee to present that Money Order at another Post Office; or
- where we accept deposits for customers of particular banks under a Bank@Post agreement and the payee has an account with a participating bank, pay the Money Order into the payee's account if instructed to do so by the payee.

Lost or destroyed Money Orders

You may request a replacement for lost or destroyed Money Orders via a Money Order Enquiry Form. You indemnify us in respect of such replacement and must give an undertaking, in a form approved by us, to repay the amount of the Standard Money Order on request.

Advice when Standard Money Order paid

You may apply to be advised if the Money Order has been redeemed and if so, where and when it was redeemed, by using the Money Order Enquiry Form.

Extra territoriality

A Money Order issued by us for payment in Norfolk Island, the Territory of Cocos (Keeling) Islands or the Territory of Christmas Island is deemed to be a Money Order for payment in Australia.
